160 Due Increase

Council Will Act On Pay Raise To City's Personnel

Council will meet in special session Monday, Oct. 29, to consider an ordinance granting pay raises totaling $57,000 a year for most of the 160 municipal employees.

The pay boosts — averaging $30 a month for salaried personnel and 16 cents hourly for day workers—were recommended to Council Monday night in a finance committee report presented by George E. Willshaw, chairman.

Willshaw said the increases would cost about $4,700 for the last two months of 1962. On an annual basis, the boosts would break down like this by funds: General, $33,500; street, $9,000; garbage, $6,840; income tax, $480; sewage department, $1,800, and water department, $5,760.

The income tax issue was not mentioned in connection with the raises, but it was evident the committee felt it was free to recommend the boosts with virtual assurance the question of repealing the revenue source will not be on the Nov. 6 ballot.

A Trades and Labor Council move to have the issue placed on the ballot, sustained in Common Pleas Court, is due to be appealed by the city to the 7th District Court of Appeals — and the election is only three weeks away.

About two months ago, Council considered pay boosts for the workers, but shelved the report to await the outcome of the tax issue. If the repeal move is not

Spotter And Fighter Planes Are Fired Upon By Guerrillas

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist guerrillas shot down a U.S. spotter plane and a U.S. Air Force fighter in South Viet Nam's central highlands Monday and today.

Three Americans aboard the spotter plane were killed.

The pilot of the T28 fighter rode his plane down and was thrown out when it hit and exploded. He was injured only slightly.

The identities of the Americans were not announced.

An earlier report said the fighter plane belonged to the Vietnamese air force, but later it was learned it was American and that the U.S. Air Force has one squadron of single-engine T28s in Viet Nam.

This was the first indication that U.S. combat planes were in action against the Communist Viet Cong.

In the past, U.S. Air Force pilots have flown combat missions in Vietnamese air force planes in air strikes against the guerrillas.

Guerrillas opened up on the hovering L28 spotter plane late Monday during a government raid on Viet Cong positions in mountainous jungle 10 miles north of Ban Me Thuot.

The fighter plane flew into the area today to give air support to ground forces protecting the wreckage of the spotter plane and bodies of the Americans. American sources said the ground party made contact with the Communists late today and killed two of the Reds.

'Early' Ballots Issued 100 Voters In County

The County Election Board has issued a total of 100 civilian absentee ballots for the Nov. 6 general election since they became available Oct. 8, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said today.

The absentee ballots are available to persons who will be outside the county and at least 10 miles from their home precinct on Election Day. Disabled voters' ballots are available for persons unable to get to the polls because of illness or infirmity.

The civilian ballots may be issued until 4 p. m. Nov. 1. They must be returned to the board's office by noon Nov. 2. Meanwhile, the board also has issued 123 ballots to servicemen and their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U. S., O'Hanlon said.

on the ballot next month, it must wait until the general election in November 1963, assuring the city of the increased income at least until that time.

$50 More To Chiefs

The report provides the chiefs of the fire and police departments would get $50 boosts, from $450 to $500. Police patrolmen and firemen would be hiked $45. Other raises in the police department would be: Captain, $400 to $430; lieutenants, $390 to $420, and patrolmen, $355 to $400. The department's overtime pay rate would be boosted from $1.50 to $2.50 per hour.

In the fire department, assistant chiefs would be raised from $390 to $420 and firemen would be boosted from $355 to $400.

In all departments, truck drivers, laborers and most maintenance men would be raised 16 cents hourly.

That would raise maintenance men from $1.87 to $2.03; truck drivers from $1.74 to $1.90 and laborers from $1.68 to $1.84.

Other pay scales proposed, listing first the present wage and then the anticipated rate, are:

Street department foreman, $440 to $470, assistant foreman, $1.89 hourly to $2.05; incinerator foreman, $420 to $450; City Hall day-

Ike Criticizes Kennedy On Foreign Plan

Ex-President Says It's 'Dreary, Too Sad To Talk About'

BOSTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower sharply criticized President Kennedy Monday night for conducting what he termed "a dreary foreign policy . . . too sad to talk about."

Eisenhower responded to Kennedy's recent criticisms of Republican foreign policy in the 1950's with a slashing attack of his own.

The former Republican president treated a partisan throng gathered at Commonwealth Armory for a $100-a-plate GOP dinner to his strongest attack to date on the Democratic administration's foreign policy.

Eisenhower is scheduled to continue his New England campaign swing in support of local GOP candidates today.

The former president displayed his famous grin and his equally famous temper Monday night in Boston.

Eisenhower appeared visibly angry when he told some 5,000 Republican party faithful of recent criticism of his foreign policy.

"Personally I have been careful in all my speeches to keep current foreign policy out of partisan debate. But when a charge is made for purely political purposes—a charge that indeed should be stated in reverse—I must seriously question the advisability of continued silence."

He quoted Kennedy as saying: "During eight years of Republican administration our foreign policy drifted aimlessly about."

Jury Subpoenaes 4 In Ohio Liquor Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy said today the special grand jury formed to probe alleged influence peddling in the liquor department has subpoenaed four persons.

The attorney general, however, said he doubted the legality of the action because a special counsel to direct the investigation has not been named.

Subpoenaed to appear Thursday was Gilbert Bilenkin, president of Famous Brands, Inc., of Dayton. Ordered to appear Wednesday were A. W. Geisinger, a Columbus attorney and original statutory agent for Famous Brands, and two newsmen, Edwin C. Heinke, chief of the Columbus Scripps-Howard Bureau, and Forrest Allen, a Cleveland Press reporter.

U.S. Fails 4th Time On High A-Test

Missile Is Blamed; Warhead Falls Into Ocean Harmlessly

HONOLULU (AP)—The United States failed Monday night for the fourth time in five tries to detonate a nuclear device at high-altitude above Johnston Island—and again a missile was to blame.

The Atomic Energy Commission said the failure was due to a malfunction in the Thor booster carrying the sub-megaton device to its firing altitude of 30 to 40 miles. The range safety officer deliberately destroyed the missile eight minutes after it was launched.

Debris from the rocket and nuclear warhead fell harmlessly into the ocean within a pre-designated safety zone away from Johnston and adjacent Sand Island, the AEC said. An announcement said there was no nuclear detonation and no danger to persons on the islands.

An AEC spokesman said the tests would be rescheduled. He said other missiles would be used to launch two other devices in other tests.

One test will use a Nike-Hercules rocket and the other a specially constructed booster with the booster from a surface-to-surface Sergeant rocket. Use of these missiles would indicate the two shots will be fired at relatively low altitudes because neither has the necessary thrust to carry their payloads to great heights.

The failure was another blow to United States missile prestige and an embarrassing disappointment to scientists and technicians at Johnston Island.

Bidding Set On Structure Of New Span

The Pennsylvania State Highway Department will open bids at Harrisburg Nov. 9 for the superstructure and interchange in industry for the Midland-Shippingport Bridge.

The specifications include 5,915,300 pounds of fabricated structural steel and 3,282 feet of parapet railing, and seeding and soil supplements and trees and shrubbery.

The length of the project is 6,394 feet.

The contract will call for the construction of separated highway consisting of reinforced cement concrete pavement 24 feet wide on each side of an earth median variable in width; reinforced cement pavement 24 feet and variable in width; one plate girder and steel truss bridge superstructure, and for the widening of existing pavement and construction of interchange ramps with reinforced cement concrete pavement of various widths.

The projects concerns Routes 68 and 168.

The specifications call for Class 1 excavation of 349,882 cubic yards and Class 2 excavation of 4,658 cubic yards.

The present substructure and approach work is about 60 per cent completed, Frank Rosa of Midland, construction inspector for the department, said.

Rosa said work is continuing ahead of schedule. The general contractor, W. P. Dickinson & Son, Inc., of Youngwood, Pa. expects to have most of the present job finished by the first of the year. He has until next September. Work began in May. The Ben Construction Co. of Pittsburgh is the sub-contractor for the excavation and preparation of the approach work.

Dickinson was awarded a $1,424,290 contract in March for the substructure. The whole project is estimated to cost $4 million or $5 million.

Schools Due Millage Cut In New Values

Board Advised Rate To Be Lower Under '63 Tax Duplicate

When the new property valuation goes on the tax duplicate next year, the tax millage for the East Liverpool city school district will be reduced 1.7 mills, the Board of Education was advised informally Monday night.

Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk-treasurer, said school officials have been advised the millage will be cut back from 22.8 mills to 21.1 to produce the same amount of money under the new valuation as it receives now.

The figures are not definite, she explained, adding that the millage for general operating expenses probably will be reduced 1.5 mills while that for bond retirement will be cut back two-tenths of a mill.

The school district valuation is expected to be increased about $3.6 million from roughly $47½ million to nearly $51 million, the board was told.

Under state law, the millage automatically is reduced so that voted levies yield the same amount of money which they originally were intended to produce.

For example, if the new 2-mill operating levy proposed by the board is approved at the Nov. 6 election, it will go on the tax books for next year along with the increased valuation.

However, it would be cutback to roughly 1.9 mills to provide the same amount of money that would be received at the present valuation.

Miss Liebschner also reported receipt of $200,266 as the final settlement on the August real estate tax. It includes $157,201 for the general fund, $33,699 for bond retirement and $9,365 for the repair and maintenance account.

The general fund now has a balance of $211,407 with a total of $285,862 in all school funds.

The board approved the appointment of Vada Blackhurst and Jane Nentwich as cafeteria workers at Westgate School. The two women have been substituting and the appointments will boost the staff to its normal strength of 10.

Rental of Westgate auditorium on Dec. 2 at 2 p. m. to the First Church of Christ, Scientist for a lecture was approved with the fee set at $20.

The Kiwanis Club was granted permission to use the Westgate cafeteria for a division council

Not In Full Accord With U.S. View

Adenauer Discounts New Soviet Crisis In Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer does not fully share the U.S. view that Russia will create a new Berlin crisis before the end of the year, Gerhard Schroeder, Bonn's foreign minister, has told Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

In reporting this, diplomatic observers said Bonn is somewhat baffled by the virtually unanimous prediction of Kennedy administration officials that Soviet Premier Khrushchev means it this time when he says that Western occupation of West Berlin must be liquidated after the U.S. congressional elections next month.

Schroeder's spokesman, Hans Hille, told newsmen after the German foreign minister met with Rusk for more than two hours Monday that Bonn believes the Russians "did not determine yet what course to take," that they are still "groping around," and that Khrushchev's threats are part of the psychological warfare being fought over the Berlin issue.

$100,000 Fine Asked

Ruling Awaited In Barnett Case

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A federal appeals court may rule later this week on the Justice Department's request that it fine Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett $100,000 for his actions in the James H. Meredith case.

Attaches of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals said it was unlikely any decision would come before Wednesday. Two panels of the court are hearing cases this week in Atlanta and Montgomery, Ala.

They will receive copies of briefs filed Monday by the Justice Department and the state of Mississippi. The state claimed the appeals court no longer had jurisdiction in the case.

Boh Barnett and Lt. Gov. Paul B. Johnson Jr. have been found guilty of contempt by the court for their part in attempting to block the enrollment of Meredith, a Negro, at the University of Mississippi. But no sanctions have been put into effect against the two officials.

When the officials were convicted, the court set possible penalties at a $10,000 daily fine and imprisonment for Barnett and a $5,000 daily fine for Johnson.

The Justice Department's latest request made no mention of Johnson.

Mrs. Constance Baker Motley, attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told the court both the governor and lieutenant-governor should be imprisoned until they promise to obey the court's orders.

At the university, the student cabinet issued a statement urging an end to student demonstrations against Meredith, first Negro admitted knowingly to the university in its 114-year history.

The statement adopted by the cabinet of nine students condemned also "the forced admission of an unqualified student."

The statement did not explain why the cabinet considers Meredith an unqualified student.

Meredith, meanwhile, started his third week of classes without incident. Only one Justice Department attorney was with him at the university cafeteria Monday night.

Way Cleared To Purchase Fire Pumper

$45,000 In Bonds Also Will Finance Street Equipment

Council gave approval Monday night to legislation authorizing issuance of $45,000 in municipal bonds to finance purchase of a $30,000 pumper for the fire department and a $15,000 combination highlift and backhoe for the street department.

At the same time, Council approved companion measures authorizing the administration to call for bids on the two pieces of new equipment.

Bond Issue Cleared On Parking Project

Council unanimously approved legislation Monday night to sell $20-year bonds that will retire $60,000 in notes issued about a year ago to finance establishment of a metered off-street parking lot on the site of the former Ceramic Theater.

The bonds will mature on Dec. 1 from 1964 to 1975, inclusive, the legislation provides. Revenue from the meters on the new lot will provide the funds to amortize the debt, the legislation provides.

thorizing the administration to call for bids on the two pieces of new equipment.

Both bond issues will run five years — from 1965 to 1969, inclusive, the legislation provides. To provide immediate funds for the purchases, the ordinance authorizes issuance of short-term notes that later would be retired when the bonds are sold.

Purchase of the new equipment was recommended by a Council committee a few weeks ago, but adoption of the report was delayed because of the uncertainty of continued revenue from the city income tax. With a virtual assurance that the city tax will not be on the ballot at the Nov. 6 general election, Council went

Judge Action Delayed By County Democrats

LISBON — Action on an endorsement for an appointment to the 7th District Court of Appeals was continued Monday night by the Columbiana County Democratic Executive and Central Committees until after the Nov. 6 general election, party officials said today. The County Bar Association has endorsed Judge Raymond Buzzard, Republican, for the vacancy on the court.

Necessary 51% Sign For Project

$400,000 Proposal Legislation Due At Meeting On Oct. 29

Virtually assuring that the $400,000 St. Clair Ave. improvement will become a reality, Charles H. Sayre of Hill Blvd. presented to Council Monday night a petition in which more than 51 per cent of the affected property-owners agreed to construction of a 36-foot wide concrete pavement at a cost to them of not over $10 a front foot.

Praising Sayre for his work in obtaining the signatures in a single-handed project, Council agreed to consider the first enabling legislation for the project at a special session Monday, Oct. 29.

Clears Ordinance Vote

With Council divided on the necessity for a 36-foot pavement, the petition means that an ordinance levying special assessments for the project can be enacted with a minimum of four affirmative votes. Without the property-owners agreeing by petition, six votes would have been required, which councilmen agreed was a virtual impossibility.

Sayre told Council the petition already has been checked informally by City Engineer George S. Bloomgren, who determined it represents more than 51 per cent of the affected property — the minimum figure set by Council.

Sayre said later approximately 7,600 feet of frontage is represented in the petition, out of an overall total of a little over 14,000 feet.

Assessments opposed

Council reached a shaky agreement in mid-August that called for a flat $10-a-foot assessment for the project. But protests were raised later by some St. Clair residents, resulting in more discussion on the project.

Since there was no petition for the improvement, proponents

Tax Case Aid Bill Approved

Disputed Measure Gets Final Reading

Winding up a trip through the legislative mill that started Sept. 17, legislation finally was approved on third reading Monday night by Council authorizing Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper to employ special counsel to aid him in filing an appellate court case to forestall a vote on the city income tax.

Council split, 5-2, on the final passage, with Councilmen Frank Duffy and Floyd Murray continuing their dissents. Favorable votes were cast by Councilmen Robert W. Sample Jr., George E. Willshaw, Edward Massey, S. James Welch and Kenneth C. Berg.

Council earlier approved a $200 appropriation to allow the solicitor to pay his aide in presenting the city's case to the 7th District Court of Appeals. The city will seek to overturn a Common Pleas Court ruling that the issue should be placed on the ballot.

Duffy and Massey commented briefly on the legislation before the final vote was taken, with Duffy repeating his opposition. Massey said Council has been blamed by some individuals for delaying the vote on the issue, but he added:

"Council is not to blame; it's in the hands of the courts."

"I want to correct an impression that I am not in charge of the case," Cooper told Council. "The only part the special counsel will play will be to prepare papers to perfect the appeal. I continue to represent the city in the courts."

Report To Council

Traffic Change Will Aid Parking

If the new California Hollow West End Freeway takes Route 30 traffic out of downtown East Liverpool, it will add 70 to 80 badly-needed parking spaces, particularly on Dresden Ave. and Market St., Council was told Monday night by John Kelly, a member of the reactivated City Traffic Commission.

Reporting on the commission's recent meetings, Kelly told Council the added parking space and a decrease in traffic congestion were seen as the two principal benefits of the freeway's opening.

HE ASKED what procedure would be taken to adjust Route 30 traffic to the freeway. Councilmen said they are not familiar with the procedure, but assume the federal route will be shifted onto the new four-lane road.

Parking is banned at present on the east side of Dresden and the west side of Market because they are links in Route 30.

Kelly said the commission also discussed parking rules on 3rd St. after the freeway is opened. He said it decided parking on the north side of the thoroughfare would not interfere with traffic, although the state plans to ban parking on both sides.

In other business, Council received a certification from Engineer George S. Bloomgren that 61.95 per cent of the affected property was represented in a petition presented recently by the East Liverpool Merchants Association calling for a new street lighting system in the shopping area.

In the petition, owners of business property agreed to assume the additional expense of about $7,000 a year.

COUNCIL requested enabling legislation for the new system in time for a special session Oct. 29, if possible.

Council approved an amended appropriation ordinance providing $13,200 in allocations and transfers for various city departments.

The list included $7,000 appropriated from income tax funds, supplementing $4,000 set aside earlier as the city's share of a low-cost street surfacing program. The city paid 50 per cent of the cost of the surfacing work, with property-owners paying the balance.

Councilman Edward Massey said the program resulted in improvement of five miles of dirt streets, "a big step in the right direction in the first year."

THE FACT the public's response was much greater than Council anticipated required the additional appropriation for the city's share, he said.

"If we continue for two more years, most of our dirt streets will be surfaced," he said.

Other appropriations in the fund bill are: Police department, $1,500; swimming pool, $1,400; city code supplement, $500; Municipal Court incidentals, $100; Civil Service Commission, $100; legal advertising, $300; engineer's incidentals, $100, and street sealcoating and patching, $2,000.

Councilman Floyd Murray reported on a meeting Monday afternoon with representatives of the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to discuss organization of a local commission on civil rights.

COUNCIL approved his motion for presentation of legislation to create a group to be known as the "Mayor's Board of Community Relations."

The measure will provide the unsalaried members will be appointed by Mayor Bert H. Goodball. Alonzo Spencer of Pennsylvania Ave., a NAACP representative, also discussed the meeting with Murray's planning committee.

Safety - Service Director Robert Owen asked enactment of legislation banning parking at night on various streets to allow the city's new street sweeping machine to work. Signs warning against parking have been erected, but no legislation has been passed for enforcement, he explained. Council agreed to consider legislation.

Councilman Kenneth C. Berg reported on a street committee meeting Wednesday with Shady-side Ave. residents seeking improvement of their street. He said the delegation was told it must present a petition to Council explaining the nature of the project it seeks. He said most of the proposed project lies outside the city limits.

COUNCILMAN S. James Welch said residents of W. 3rd St. are continuing to complain about the condition in which their sidewalks and curbs were left by a contractor who resurfaced the street, reducing the grade in some spots, as a link with the new city freeway.

Parking was banned on the stretch last week, supposedly for work on the sidewalks, but "it looks like they just took a rake and scraped up some dirt," Welch said.

"It was a very poor job the state did on the sidewalk," Welch said. "The complaints should be corrected before the city accepts the freeway."

Berg asked Owen to investigate a complaint of a sewer odor in the Bradshaw Ave. area. Councilman Frank Duffy reported a stop sign at Holiday and Walters Sts. has been knocked down by a car.

The meeting opened with invocation by President Charles N. Edwards.

Precinct Staff Class Planned In Wellsville

The fifth in a series of instruction schools for precinct officials who will staff polling places at the Nov. 6 general election will be held tonight at 8 in the visual education room at Daw Junior High School in Wellsville by the County Election Board.

Although anyone may attend, the school primarily is for judges and clerks in Wellsville city, Yellow Creek Township and the Glasgow precinct of Madison Township, Frank R. O'Hanlon, Election Board clerk, said. Some 90 officials from the 15 precincts are expected to attend, he added.

The board's final school will be held Oct. 25 at Westgate School for East Liverpool, Liverpool and St. Clair Township precinct workers.

Summitville Council To Get Rate Proposal

SUMMITVILLE — A representative of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. will meet with Council Wednesday night to discuss a proposed gas rate increase which Council rejected earlier in the summer.

Mayor Ernest Phillips said any citizens interested in the proposed gas rate schedule are invited to attend. The Council meeting, originally scheduled Thursday, was advanced because some members have meetings elsewhere Thursday.

Vandals Paint Autos, Truck

Using a stolen can of spray paint, vandals painted obscene words and phrases in huge letters along the sides of three autos and a truck on a Klondyke parking lot Monday, police reported.

The vandals began by breaking into the auto of Edward C. Crawford of Glenmoor on the parking lot of the Louthan Manufacturing Co. on Harvey Ave., officers said. With an aerosol-powered can of paint taken from Crawford's auto, they sprayed the other parked vehicles, officers said.

The words were painted on a 1955 car of Wilbur Dyke of Rogers, a 1961 model truck owned by Russell Wines of East Liverpool, a 1941 car of Raymond Saltsman of Wellsville and a 1957 car owned by William Enochs of Newell, officers reported.

Dyke's car was painted both inside and out. The paint was sprayed on the left side of the Wines truck and the Saltsman car and the right side of the Enochs auto.

Patrolman Orin C. Smith investigated. Crawford told police the vandalism took place sometime between 6:55 a. m. and 3:30 p. m.

Meanwhile, Robert Landfried, 328 Martin St., told police early today a window was broken on the left side of his 1958 model auto sometime between 7:30 p. m. and midnight Monday while it was parked on Pennsylvania Ave.

Pughtown Group Will Hold Dinner

Plans were made to sponsor a turkey dinner Nov. 1 at a meeting of the Berean Class of the Pughtown Christian Church Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glass of Pughtown.

The dinner will be held at the church. Proceeds will be used for the building fund for a new addition on the Bible School.

The members also will have a refreshment booth for the bazaar being sponsored by the Golden Rule Class of the church sometime in November. Proceeds will also go toward the fund.

The meeting opened with devotions led by Mrs. J. Albert Hall. Her topic was "God's Light." The Scripture lesson was taken from the Beatitudes. The session closed with hymns and prayer.

Lunch was served to 12 including a special guest, Mrs. Edna Winland of East Liverpool.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stewart of Pughtown will entertain the class Nov. 8.

5 Firemen Injured In Cleveland Blaze

CLEVELAND (AP)—Five firemen suffered minor injuries today in a triple alarm fire that did an estimated $17,500 damage to a two-story building at 8415 Superior Avenue.

The fire followed a small explosion which touched off a blaze on the roof of the two-story commercial and residential building. The cause was undetermined.

Firemen from the 8th Battalion brought the blaze under control in less than an hour. The injured firemen were treated for minor burns at Mt. Sinai Hospital and released.

Fire Capt. Joseph Cinader, who set the loss, said the apartments above a grocery store were occupied, since there had been a fire at the same address Saturday.

Plans Aired By Southern Local Board

Long-range plans for Southern Local School District, including eventual transfer of seventh and eighth grades to the high school now under construction, were discussed at a meeting of the Board of Education Monday night at Franklin School.

The board also approved of the merits of recommendations in a recent survey of schools in Jefferson County by an Ohio University team, including a proposed merger of Wellsville, Stanton Local and Southern Local districts.

The future transfer of the seventh and eighth grades to the high school building would enable students of those grades to take advantage of consolidated science, music, library, athletic and extra-curricular programs not now available in the five separate elementary schools, it was explained.

The transfer would require construction of about eight extra classrooms at the new high school center on Route 39 east of Salineville. There are about 240 students in the two classes at present.

Discussion was held on the Jefferson County survey, and the board adopted a resolution approving its merits, and "being willing" to take advantage of opportunities of advancing educational programs.

In other action, the board authorized application for Title 3 aid for science equipment, including projectors and screen at a cost of $750.

Discussion was held on crowded conditions in Grades 5 to 8 at Franklin where 148 students are in five rooms. It was agreed that parents of some sixth grade students will be asked to permit students to attend Salineville School to alleviate the condition.

Contract for supply of gasoline at the Franklin School was changed from the Standard Oil Co. to the Saline Oil Co. which serves all other schools in the district at present. The move was made, the board said, to simplify the arrangement. Prices would be the same, members said.

Discussion was held on the water level of the well at Wayne School, which was low during September. Jack Baker, executive head, was authorized to check the depth and other details in line with possible improvement of service.

It was reported seven of the school buses were approved on first inspection last month, and eight others were approved after adjustments and changes were made.

Discussion was held on a gas utility proposal for temperature conditioning at the new high school, with extension of a gas main to the school area. Such a system is not incorporated in the design of the structure, the construction of which is well under way.

Minor repairs were authorized for the bus garage at Franklin. Removal of a dying tree at Franklin was also approved.

The board accepted an offer of over an acre of land from Paul Serafy of Wellsville R.D. for enlargement of the playground at No. 16 School. Necessary legal papers are to be prepared for the next meeting Nov. 19 at the No. 19 School.

Authorized to attend the Ohio School Boards Association meeting at Columbus Nov. 13-15 were Miss Ruth McNichol, Mrs. Betty Rhodes, Jack Stewart and Baker, with Mrs. Rhodes as delegate.

ahead with the purchase. The tax issue still is in the courts.

The new 1,000-gallon-per-minute pumper will replace a 32-year-old piece of equipment.

Councilman George E. Willshaw, finance committee chairman, recalled that the city first started making plans to replace the pumper in 1958 "when the pumper was only 28 years old."

Safety - Service Director Robert Owen thanked Council for authorizing the purchases. He said the street department's present highlift also is worn out.

All the enabling legislation for the bond issues and the authorization to call for bids carries emergency clauses, which means it will go into effect as soon as it is signed by Mayor Bert H. Goodballet.

The legislation was passed unanimously and virtually without comment.

Referring to the pumper purchase, Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. said: "This is something we have needed direly for a good many years."

2 Killed, 7 Hurt In Farrell Steel Plant Accident

FARRELL, Pa. (AP)—A falling steel plate knocked down a scaffold at the Sharon Steel Co.'s Roehmer works, killing two men and injuring seven others.

Gardner Birch, 52, and Graham P. Matthews, 44, both of Sharon, were killed Monday.

John E. O'Rourke, 50, of Sharon and Reed A. Graves, 44, of Hubbard, Ohio, were admitted to Sharon General Hospital. O'Rourke was listed in poor condition and Graves in good condition.

Released after treatment at the firm's emergency hospital were Thomas V. Hageman of Warren, Ohio; Rudolph N. Mamula of Youngstown, Ohio; Mitchell Cerny of Girard, Ohio, and Dillard Fiedler and Samuel Carroll, both of Farrell.

Coroner Cyril Reinsel of Mercer County said the men, all employees of the Eichleay Construction Co., Pittsburgh, were renovating the No. 2 blast furnace and all but Graves were standing on a wooden scaffold supported by a cable from the steel plate.

The coroner said a weld on the plate snapped and the plate fell on the scaffold, causing it to collapse.

Johnson Sets Breakfast In Hancock

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's visit to Hancock County Oct. 26 will include brief stops in each of the larger communities and a breakfast at the Chester American Legion Post 121 home.

The Democratic leader's agenda is currently being planned but the breakfast at 9 a. m. in Chester appears assured, Richard L. Wright of Chester, County chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee announced today.

The vice president will arrive in Steubenville Oct. 25, and stay that night at the Fort Steuben Hotel.

Tentative plans call for Johnson to leave Steubenville the next morning about 8, and cross into West Virginia. The trip north will probably include brief stops in Weirton, New Cumberland and Newell.

The auxiliary will serve breakfast to the vice president and about 300 guests at the American Legion home. Gov. W. W. Barron and Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey may appear as guests on the vice president's trip to the 1st Congressional District.

Following the breakfast, Johnson will visit the Weirton Steel Co.'s tin mill, then fly to Parkersburg for a major political address, Wright reported.

Wright said he hopes to have the vice president confer briefly with area pottery officials to discuss the plight of the industry in this area.

Rhodes Proposes Expansion For Park Facilities

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Ohio loses millions of dollars a year in tourist trade because of inadequate state park facilities, asserts State Auditor James A. Rhodes, the Republican candidate for governor.

He called for "bold, imaginative action to expand Ohio parks and recreational facilities to meet skyrocketing demands" in a speech before 300 Republicans Monday night.

Man Files Denial On Theft Charge

Clayton Hitchcock, 205 Drain St., pleaded not guilty when arraigned today in Municipal Court on a charge he stole clothing and other property worth a total of $200 from a recently-discharged Beaver serviceman's luggage in East Liverpool Oct. 3.

The plea was entered through Hitchcock's counsel, Atty. W. S. Foulks. Judge Samuel M. Cherstoff granted the defendant's request for a continuance until Monday at 9 a. m. His $1,000 bond was continued.

The charge against Hitchcock was filed by David C. Javens of Beaver, who alleged the local man was in an auto in which Javens was given a ride while hitch-hiking at Toronto. Javens told police his property was stolen from his luggage when the four men stopped at a Dresden Ave. tavern. Hitchcock was taken into custody on Javens' affidavit Oct. 8.

St. Clair

sought to work out a compromise on which at least six members could agree.

Finally, in a formal poll on Sept. 12, Council agreed it would go ahead with the $400,000 project—and with a width of 36 feet prescribed for the pavement—if petitions representing at least 51 per cent of the affected property agreed to a $10 assessment.

Sayre started to work quietly a few days later, seeking signatures.

The three-lane improvement will stretch from Princeton Ave. to the city limits. It will include a complete storm drainage system — a facility almost totally lacking now on outer St. Clair.

Federal Aid Promised

The U. S. government already has promised to provide half the cost by making St. Clair part of its federal aid secondary system of roadways.

The first enabling legislation probably will be a so-called "consent" ordinance, in which the city agrees to the State Highway Department performing the work. The ordinance has been gathering dust at City Hall since it was received from state authorities about two months ago.

In the poll at the mid-September meeting, support of the petition plan was indicated by Councilmen Robert W. Sample Jr., George E. Willshaw, Edward Massey, Floyd Murray and S. James Welch. Councilman Kenneth C. Berg voted an unqualified "no" and Councilman Frank Duffy did not vote either way. He said: "When I see the petition, I will tell you."

Presented At Caucus

Sayre presented his petition to Council in its caucus session. Later, the petition was presented on the floor at the public meeting and referred to the engineer for formal certification of the foot frontage involved. That's always the first step before enabling legislation is presented for a special assessment project.

Council requested that Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper present the enabling legislation at the Oct. 29 meeting, following through on the engineer's report.

In the caucus session, Sayre explained first that the petition represented "over half the frontage on St. Clair Ave." He said he worked several weeks circulating the petition.

"It does my heart good to present this," Sayre said. "This is one of the proudest nights of my life because I feel it is a project that will be for the good of East Liverpool."

Seen As Inducement

"I hope this will provide an inducement for others to work on similar projects," Sayre added. "I feel it is a step in the right direction, but more needs to be done."

"This job was done single-handed," Sample said, praising Sayre. He added that some others who favor the project have not signed the petition yet.

Most of the other members of Council joined in praising Sayre, shaking his hand in congratulation.

"You're certainly to be congratulated for a job well done," Willshaw said. "A lot of people will be grateful to you."

Sample said Sayre worked 60 to 70 hours a week in circulating the petition.

During the reign of Constantine the Great in Rome (306-377 A.D.), when the huge Egyptian obelisk was erected in the Circus Maximus, the foreman put his men into metal battle helmets to shield them from falling masonry.

Jaycees Back City Levies

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, at a membership meeting Monday night at the Travelers Hotel, went on record favoring passage of the school and fire levies that will be on the Nov. 6 ballot.

Robert Lewis, president, outlined the school levies while Jack Hales, secretary, reviewed the fire levy.

Thirty-five attended. Robert E. Preston, director of public relations for the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio, was guest speaker.

He reviewed the history of the firm and explained that Sohio and Humble are two separate companies. He was introduced by Richard Chadwick, program chairman.

Guests included James Matheny and Fred Stecker. Hales reported on the District 5 meeting Saturday at Warren and the September All-State meeting held in Columbus.

Bob Garner was announced as a new member of the Board of Directors, succeeding Marvin Roberts, who has moved from town.

Joe Coons said the scholarship fund committee is operating. John Parsons, Christmas activities chairman, reviewed the plans to date for the annual Christmas parade.

Ed Adkins was announced as chairman of a chairmanship training committee. The Jaycees are investigating the possibility of beautifying a section of W. 8th St.

Larry Walton said this month's social will be held Saturday, Oct. 27, at the Tri-State Boots and Saddle Club. A round and square dance will follow a hayride.

Frank Mangano reported on the get-out-the-vote committee. Jack Woomer said a public Halloween dance will be Oct. 31 at the former American Paper Products Co. building. Costume is optional. Bob White's combo will provide the music.

No Direct Connection But . . .

Secretary of State Rusk has made it officially clear there is no connection between Cuba and West Berlin. But the connection is there unofficially.

Soviet satellite officials attending the opening sessions of the United Nations General Assembly talked about it to U.N. delegates. The Kremlin has a deal in mind.

If the United States and its allies will ease up on West Berlin, the Soviet Union will ease upon Cuba. It will limit its arms exports to Cuba to those relatively minor items that cannot be used to attack on the United States.

It will let the Cubans have no long-range guns, no missiles, no submarines, no bombers. It will keep Cuba in the popgun category. No Russian technicians will explain to Cubans how they could launch aggression against an "enemy" 100 miles away. This would be the Russian deal for more freedom in Berlin.

THE ALTERNATIVE would be for the United States to risk the possibility the Russians might turn Cuba into a staging area for large-scale military attack.

This is the kind of deal made to order for the tough minds that dominate the Kremlin. It is the kind of thinking that could be expected by men who believe the end justifies the means — men who have no awareness of ethics and morality.

These are the same people capable of liquidating millions of their own countrymen to promote a revolution. But is it possible they may have overlooked something?

Americans once were famous for deals too. They never earned the reputations for ruthlessness held by the British, Dutch, Germans, French, Spaniards and Belgians. But they earned a reputation for shrewdness, and perhaps they haven't entirely forgotten how to be shrewd.

THE UNITED STATES is interested in West Berlin only because the presence of it and its allies pains the Russians. Why wouldn't this be a fine time to tell the Kremlin that if the Berlin wall isn't torn down by a week from Wednesday the United States will start a full blockade of Cuba a week from Thursday, with a view to starving to death every Russian technician now on the island and proving to the world that Russia cannot defend Cuba; that Russia is bluffing?

Why must it always be assumed that the Russians hold the whip hand when they're bluffing? Americans never can hold it because in a popular government bluffing is out of the question. But they can wield a whip when it's handed to them and there never will be a better chance than Cuba.

What Really Made The Difference?

It is not easy for some Americans to understand why their government has gone to such lengths to meet the competition of the European Common Market by the Trade Agreements Act passed this year.

It is not easy to understand why there has been so much excitement over the European Community — the six Common Market countries—Belgium, France, German Federal Republic, Italy, Luxembourg and the Netherlands. What have they done to make them suddenly so important?

Simply this:

Under inspired leadership of individuals with extraordinary vision they are releasing the dynamic energy of industrial and agricultural producers in a cooperative endeavor to raise their standard of living.

They have done this by the simple expedient of turning the skill of their most intelligent people to the improvement of the common lot.

They have been able to do it by another simple expedient—persuading government to be with the producers of wealth instead of against them.

The European Community has set itself the goal of giving its citizens as much as they are able to earn. Its member nations have quit harassing enterprise with restrictions and encouraged it with privileges and liberties never enjoyed before. Taxes and regulations have been eased. Blocs and minorities that wanted to use government to handicap competitors have been slapped down.

There has been a massive release of the human energy once hobbled by political rules and regulations designed by people who never understood or wanted to understand industrialism.

That's what is making the difference in the European Community, now demonstrating what can happen even in the Old World when politicians take their feet off the people's neck.

It's Your Hassel Now

The United States has declined to guarantee the safety of British ships carrying cargo to Cuba. Under different circumstances this could be a ticklish declaration.

As it is, however, the British government and British ship owners have nothing to argue about. What the United States means is that if British shipping is destroyed in Cuban waters by punitive military action there will be no use to complain to Washington.

The destruction cannot be attributed to official U.S. action.

THE SHIPS from which the destruction was launched cannot be attributed to registry in the U.S. Navy.

The personnel cannot be found listed in any of the U.S. forces.

It will be like those "Travel at Your Own Risk" signs they put up along highways where possibly dangerous conditions exist. The traveler may be unaware of any risk at all. He may travel indefinitely without seeing anything risky.

But if he has a mishap that he otherwise would blame on the people in charge of whatever was being done he must grin and bear it. He was warned. He was "traveling at his own risk."

BRITISH shipping carrying cargo to Cuba will be traveling at its own risk as far as the United States is concerned. Let's say that a U.S. destroyer was in sight of a British cargo ship bound for Havana and the cargo ship was attacked by an unidentified gunboat. Would the U.S. destroyer rush to the defense of a British ship when the British government's own spokesmen insist it has no quarrel with Cuba; that this is purely a local hassle?

Wouldn't that be the time for the captain of the destroyer to signal to the captain of the cargo ship: "Good luck, mister, it's your hassel now."

Better Than They Knew By Truman Twill

The only puzzling thing about these new automobile warranties that protect the buyer for up to two years or the distance around the earth at the equator is why it took manufacturers so long to find the courage.

Their cars aren't that much better than they were before—when they are good. They are generally better, no mistake about that. But not so much better they can jump from 90 days to more than 700 days of warranted trouble-free service.

All fine print aside, whatever it says and however it varies, what car manufacturers have done is to act on the evidence about the durability of their products. They have been building better autos than they admitted.

It is not that each car is better but that total production is better. There has been a vast improvement in production control. Inspection systems have been upgraded. Manufacturers no longer have that grisly fear of the "lemon" that used to get away from their factories to give them a sour reputation.

This used to be a common occurrence. Everybody heard lurid tales of the family that bought a "lemon." Auto dealers must have jumped from high places after some of their ordeals with customers who "came back" on them for these mechanical hypochondriacs.

My cousin once told me in sorrowful confidence he had cashed in a dealership after a sour-searing year when production control deteriorated so far he put in hours of unscheduled work on each new car, fixing things done wrong at the factory. I've always remembered one mistake.

The bore at the main works had neglected to bore some holes that let water drain away when it runs down through a door and trickles out through openings at the bottom. The new owner found himself up to his ankles in water the first time it rained. He was mad.

Our family began to own autos in 1917.

And of the several dozen that have chugged through family history only one was a "lemon." Our family experience suggests that if auto manufacturers had dared to do it sooner they could have given us warranties years ago like the ones they're giving new car owners now.

They wouldn't have paid a dime more than they were prepared to pay anyway. Once we had a car with a pump that didn't work. When we complained, the dealer had been authorized to install a new one at no expense because none of the pumps had worked and all were being replaced free. The manufacturer had no choice.

Aside from incidents like that, we had cars for years that remained trouble-free. Admitting that they were carefully driven and treated with as much consideration as the horses they replaced, I find nothing startling in the idea of warranties that will be in effect after 24-pay mortgages have been lifted.

They could have done this long ago. These are not blanket warranties. They are selective. They contain no latitude for abuse and recklessness. They merely say what millions of auto owners have known to be true for a long time—that a modern automobile can be expected to last until it's paid for.

Some of us owners beat the builders to the punch on that gimmick about needing no greasing for upsteeen thousand miles too. We knew that, too, especially if we started to own cars before pressure greasing equipment. Every fitting then had a "grease cup" that we used to turn down periodically when there was nothing else to do. Sometimes you'd forget for a year or more.

Teamsters Use 'Sweet Talk'

By Victor Riesel

Word has gone out to teamster officials to be gentlemen at all times. Soft words for the soft sell. So Jimmy Hoffa's buddy, Joey (Shorty) Glimco, iron-handed overseer of the Chicago drivers, has taken to sweet conversation and sweet rolls.

For a month now, Glimco has been riding the streets of Chicago in a white vehicle. By taste he prefers a Cadillac. But not in the dawn. At 6 most mornings, he now takes to a white coffee wagon. He heads out for a garage or a crowded back stand or an airport or one of the big gray rail terminals.

Victor Riesel

He goes wherever he can find taxi drivers who deserted the big Teamster Local 777, which he heads. Then from 6 to 8:30, often shifting sites to avoid the opposition, he hands out coffee, rolls, sweet buns and sweet talk about the virtues of Hoffa and the brotherhood.

RIDING TAIL on the roving coffee urn are two Chicago detectives. Their assignment is to catch up with Glimco when he slips away. The police want to make certain the antagonistic Chicago taxi drivers don't take their hostilities out on Glimco—and that Joey G. doesn't forget the admonition to remain the gentleman at all times. Now this makes things difficult for the man Hoffa entrusts to be account executive in charge of Chicago.

Mr. Glimco has a record of 36 arrests. These range from charges of murder to charges of disorderly conduct. Brother Glimco is fortunate. He has never served time.

Also he is tangling with the Treasury Department. The Internal Revenue Service charges that he owes the government at least $145,000. Glimco, president of Taxicab Drivers, Maintenance and Garage Helpers Union, Local 777, of the Teamsters Brotherhood, is being dunned for some $95,600 in "deficiencies" and some $49,500 in penalties. This is on money drawn from the union.

FURTHERMORE there are now six other interrelated cases in the U.S. Tax Court involving the local itself and five of its officers. If the tax people eventually win their case against Glimco and company, they will have established that Local 777 actually is not a union in the eyes of the government and therefore can be taxed.

As I said "Shorty" Glimco's sweet rolls and sweet talk must be quite a strain on him. He is trying to retake some 4,000 hackies who bolted to a section of Paul Hall's Seafarers' International Union called Transportation Services and Allied Workers. This division's president is Dominic Abata.

This unit of the seafarers reports that it has taxi organizers in Detroit, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Boston, and Rochester. And that it has won elections in contests with the teamsters, or has chartered locals, or is about to charter units in "Hoffa's backyards."

This, it seems to me, puts Hoffa and his colleagues on the defensive despite the outpourings of their propaganda ministry.

THUS THERE IS more symbolism in those sweet rolls than appears in the dim early dawn. Jimmy Hoffa sees himself as the avant-garde. He has his eyes on the future—you know, communications, telestars, moon bases. This means strong drives for white-collar workers and engineers and technicians.

He'll find it difficult enough explaining to these people his own two criminal indictments on which he soon is to go to trial in the federal courtrooms. And there is that ever increasing number of indictments of teamster officials—now numbering 44 such officers—in addition to teamster members. A sensational trial of one top officer is due to break in Jersey soon.

ALL THIS won't help Hoffa's drive to invade the nation's communications system. Many employees in the field are women. They want no part of rough and tumble stuff. It's not generally known around the countryside, but the teamsters in Joey Glimco's Chicago have been working on an independent union of workers in the Illinois Bell Telephone system offices.

While he moves on the Illinois Bell people, he is whipping into shape his efforts to move in on the New York Telephone system and the Western Electric people who install mighty complicated switchboards and communication controls.

There you have dreams of glory. Any man who can combine power in the transportation field with influence in modern communications will be a strong man, indeed.

Too strong, don't you think?

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I have been reading a lot lately in the East Liverpool Review and other local newspapers about conditions in Chester and her newly-elected administration.

It seems to me that very little is being accomplished. Names appear in papers and mud is being slung. The cleaning of someone's musty cellars or rooms of its vice and the illicit flow of liquor, Chester is getting some publicity in and around the area and at the same time other portions of her stature are being neglected. As an individual I believe Chester is in the market for a couple dozen push brooms so that her streets will be presentable to an occasional passerby. It is easy to find her faults at the expense of her children, they who suffer most for lack of entertainment. They scribble on new or newly - painted automobiles. They litter the streets for the lack of disposal cans. They tear down the sign posts. They read of the hub dup and then follow the parade.

This is the beginning. And then they go underground for they know that which is buried has much smell. But when these things are brought out in the open they cause a sour or an unpleasant odor. These are the things to overcome. If we in Chester would set a good example, we would have a good following.

It is my experience that most cities and towns have their key clubs for those who wish to participate. It states in the Bible let the dead bury the dead. I for one would like to keep Chester alive and progressive.

As a taxpaying Republican citizen of the United States, I wish to protest my president's use of my money to campaign against me (through his stumping tirades against my GOP candidates)!

If Kennedy is to be president of only the Democrats of this nation, then let's amend the Constitution (or have the Supreme Court interpret the existing one) so as to allow both major parties their own personal "stumping president".

Teachers' Dilemma

By David Lawrence

'Prayer Day' To Test Court Ruling

The principals and teachers in the public schools of the nation face a strange dilemma on Wednesday of this week. Shall they obey the Supreme Court of the United States, which has banned any prayer composed, recommended or encouraged by a governmental body for use in the schools? Or shall they obey a proclamation, issued last Thursday by the President of the United States, fixing Oct. 17 as "the National Day of Prayer" and specifying particularly the purposes to be prayed for?

David Lawrence

The Supreme Court did not bar voluntary prayer as such in the schools, but did rule that any prayer "composed" and "recommended" or even "encouraged" by any branch of the government must be considered a violation of the Constitution.

The ruling, the court said, was based on the First Amendment, which declares that Congress "shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion."

Congress, however — ten years before the Supreme Court decision in the "school prayer" case — did pass a joint resolution on April 17, 1952, which called on the president "to set aside and proclaim" a suitable day each year "as a national day of prayer, on which the people of the United States may turn to God in prayer and meditation at churches, in groups and as individuals."

WILL CLASSES in public schools, therefore, be legally considered as among such groups?

The Supreme Court said in its decision June 25 that "it is no part of the business of government to compose official prayers for any group of the American people." The court also said that the First Amendment was added to the Constitution "as a guarantee that neither the power nor the prestige of the federal government would be used to control, support or influence the kinds of prayer the American people can say."

Was the President's proclamation an attempt to "influence the kinds of prayer" the American people shall use? Was it a recommendation as to what the content of a prayer should be on a particular day?

The proclamation contained the following exhortations:

"On this day, let us all pray, each following the practices of his own faith. Let us pray for our nation and for other nations of the world. May we especially ask God's blessing upon —

"Our homes, that this integral unit of society may nurture our youth and give to them the needed faith in God, in our nation and in their future;

"Our citizens, that they may increase in the desire to promote mercy and justice, peace and freedom, good will and brotherhood; that they may open new frontiers in helping to alleviate hunger, ignorance and disease;

"Our nation, that each new achievement may add to our heritage of faith;

"And our world, that this generation may experience the fruits of peace and may know the real meaning of brotherhood under God."

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed."

COULD ANYTHING be more official than the foregoing document? The Supreme Court in its decision last June barred not only official prayer of any kind but also the use of the government's prestige to encourage the recitation of particular prayers.

The New York State prayer which the Supreme Court barred was referred to in its decision as having been composed by the state because it was written by the state educational board and sent to the local school boards with the recommendation that they set aside a few minutes each morning to recite it.

The full text of this particular prayer consisted of only 22 words. It read as follows:

"Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon thee, and we beg thy blessings upon us, our parents, our teachers and our country."

The court said that, though this prayer may be denominationally neutral, and though its "observance on the part of students is voluntary," it was nevertheless an official prayer.

The court said that "each separate government in this country should stay out of the business of writing or sanctioning official prayers and leave that purely religious function to the people themselves."

How, then, would the Supreme Court construe a president's proclamation containing religious expressions set forth as the substance of a prayer recommended for use throughout the nation, including the public schools?

THE LANGUAGE of the preamble of the President's proclamation, moreover, will have to be studied now to determine whether it can be regarded as a part of what the court called a "program of governmentally supported religious activity." The proclamation reads as follows:

"Whereas faith in Almighty God was a dominant power in the lives of our Founding Fathers and

"Whereas they express this faith in prayer, and in this posture members of the Continental Congress mutually pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor; and

"Whereas each succeeding generation has shared that faith; and

"Whereas in full recognition of our dependence upon Almighty God and for our continuing need of his great blessings, the Congress of the United States by joint resolution approved on the seventeenth day of April 1952 a provision that 'the president shall set aside and proclaim a suitable day each year, other than a Sunday, as a national day of prayer, on which the people of the United States may turn to God in prayer and meditation at churches, in groups, and as individuals.'

"Now, therefore, I, John F. Kennedy, President of the United States, do set aside and proclaim Wednesday, the seventeenth day of October 1962, as a national day of prayer."

MAY THE WORDS recommended by the President for use in prayers be read aloud in the schools?

Or may copies be circulated in the classrooms for silent reading?

Did the President get a formal opinion from the attorney general advising him that he could disregard the Supreme Court decision in the "school prayer" case? If so, will the opinion of the Department of Justice be made public?

These are the unanswered questions arising out of a presidential proclamation recommending a series of supplications to be used on National Prayer Day by "the people of the United States" — which phrase, of course, includes the children in the schools.

U.S. Readies Moon Shot On Wednesday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Engineers and technicians, frustrated for 24 hours by a faulty spacecraft component, made final preparations today to launch the Ranger 5 spacecraft Wednesday toward the moon.

The launching was called off late Monday when checkout could not be completed in time.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said there wasn't enough time to make the calibration check and replace Ranger 5 atop its Atlas-Agena B booster rocket.

The problem, involving reduction of signal strength in a radio telemetry circuit, cropped up Sunday.

Ranger 5 is intended to streak across a quarter million miles of space, take closeup television pictures of the moon and then land an instrument capsule to record moonquakes and meteor hits.

NASA has a favorable period ending Friday in which to launch the rocket to put Ranger 5 on the desired course. If the launching is not accomplished in that time, the shot will be put off until the next optimum period, starting about Nov. 13.

Adlai Rapped On Too Bright Congo Picture

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

—U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson came under criticism today from African delegates who felt he painted too bright a picture of chances for solving the Congo crisis.

"African circles expressed surprise at Stevenson's disclosure that he told President Kennedy Sunday recent developments 'give us some hope of a solution of the problem in the Congo.'"

Some delegates were privately critical when it was reported Stevenson had based this hope on word from Elisabethville that the Katanga gendarmerie and the Congolese army are ready to sign a cease-fire.

Diplomats here agreed tension would be eased by a cease-fire and Katanga President Moise Tshombe's reported offer to send the head of his armed forces to Leopoldville to pledge allegiance to the central government. But they cautioned that such actions would by no means settle the over-all issue of Congo unity.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I wonder how many friends wash their venetian blinds. Do they wash them in the tub and carry them dripping through the house? Do they try to wash them at the window, dripping water all over the floor and "amputating" every finger? Have they ever taken them outside to wash them? This makes the job almost easy.

Lay them on an old plastic tablecloth or rubber sheet—to keep from scratching the blinds—and wash them on your patio floor, porch, or sidewalk.

Wash them with warm soapy water and a soft brush. Now hang the blind between two clothes lines. Do this by laying the area between the tick board on the end (and the top) and the first slat across the line itself.

Rinsing is now accomplished by turning the garden hose on the blinds until all traces of dirt and soap are removed! Please make sure that your clotheslines are in the shade as the sun will cause spotting and streaking.

Everyone who has casement windows and inside screens . . .

why not wash them while you have the soapy water ready? When you have washed them, lean them against the house, fence or tree and turn the hose on them too!

While you are at it, drag out the baby's chrome high chair, scrub it well with the same warm soapy water and let it sit for a few minutes until all of the dried cereal and green beans are loosened! And . . . give it a good hose bath too. Go finish the rest of your housework and when you are finished, your blinds, screens, and high chair will be all clean and ready to replace. What a wonderful feeling!

BARBARA

It is suggested that you hang your blinds up while the cords and tapes are slightly damp to prevent shrinking—just in case you have that type!

HELOISE

Variety Of Tips

DEAR HELOISE: I clean water lines from my glass pots by adding a slice of lemon to some water and letting it come to a boil in the pan . . . then let it sit for one hour. Be sure the water line is above the line in the glass itself.

I find that when we are leaving for a few days vacation that I can place a sponge soaked with water on top of my plants. This seems just enough to keep the plants themselves from drying out.

Paint spatters on windows can be easily removed with nail polish remover.

MRS. I. GRAHAM

No Sweat

DEAR FOLKS: For fresh perspiration stains on washable materials (if applicable), wash with water to which a detergent has been added, and a little bit of ammonia. Never use soap.

For old perspiration stains, if the material is washable make a solution of vinegar and warm water to which a little pinch of detergent has been added. Again do not use soap.

Dairy First To Meet Its Quota

John Eiferd, president of the Golden Star Dairy, left, and David Mumaw, routeman, at right, representing the firm's 60 employees, present a check for $400 to Richard Emmerling, campaign chairman, as the first area firm and employees to meet its assigned "Company-Family" quota towards the Community Fund's goal of $80,000.

Emmerling today announced receipt of the check representing the combined cash gifts of employees and company for Golden Star's assigned quota.

Quenton Henderson, sales manager, was in charge of the Community Fund solicitation of employees in the firm's plant and general offices.

In making the announcement, Emmerling said, "We are gratified with this prompt response by a respected local industry, in spite of the fact that their assigned quota amounted to nearly three times gifts asked a year ago.

"Everyone of Golden Star's 60 employees have contributed and in amounts averaging about 20 per cent higher than last year. The company itself generously increased its gift by 140 per cent to meet this assigned civic responsibility.

"We feel sure that other area industries and businesses will join with their employees in meeting their respective 'Company-Family' quotas just as generously. Then, there will be no doubt but that our $80,000 goal will be met."

The board also authorized Pamela Woods, Philip Irwin and Carolyn Mays to attend city schools with the tuition to be paid by their parents. The Beaver Local board has approved the attendance of the Woods youngster but has refused permission for Irwin and Miss Mays, Supt. Ralph W. Betts said.

It also authorized Susan Wilson of Chester to enroll in a chemistry class at the high school with a fee of $12 a month.

The board voted to pay Vernon Walrath, supervisor of the diversified co-operative training program, $12 a month for mileage with $9 of the amount being returned to the board by the State Department of Education.

It also approved the purchase of a projector for McKinley School at a cost of $325 with the Home and School Association and the National Defense Education Act each paying 50 per cent of the cost.

A request from Chapin & Chapin of Norwalk, one of the contractors on the city freeway, to store a large power shovel on property at Westgate School also was approved.

The board also reviewed resolutions and proposals to be presented at the Ohio School Boards Association meeting Nov. 14-15 in Columbus. Mrs. Nessie R. Dunlop will be the board's delegate. Supt. Betts also reviewed the plans for the campaign for passage of a new 2-mill operating levy and renewal of a 3-mill levy at the Nov. 6 election.

About $300 has been donated from school groups to finance the campaign, the superintendent said. The Speakers' Bureau has arranged for 42 organizations to hear a talk on the need of the two levies and the Student Council of the high school is completing plans for a house canvass.

Rhodes Estimate Hit By Department Head

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It has cost a third less to operate the State Department of Industrial and Economic Development for 35 months than the Republican candidate for governor, James A. Rhodes, estimates, the department director claims.

Director Koder M. Collison issued a statement saying that his department spent $1,123,198 between its official start Nov. 4, 1959, and the end of last month. Collison said Rhodes estimated expenditures at $1.5 million.

Today nearly 5,000 people of mixed European, African and Asiatic stock live on St. Helena Island.

Call-Back Pay Set

"Call-back pay" of a minimum of two hours' pay also would be guaranteed street and water department employees.

In addition to the proposed pay boosts, Council took the first step toward a life and hospital insurance plan for city employees, financed by municipal funds.

A resolution was approved authorizing Safety-Service Director Robert Owen to call for bids from insurance companies, based on specifications announced two weeks ago by a special Council investigating committee.

Before listing the suggested pay boosts, Willshaw reported on the city's financial condition through Sept. 30—end of the third quarter. He recalled that the committee conferred with employees early in the year to discuss pay boosts and told them the decision would be made "when it becomes apparent we're going to end the year in the black."

Tax Revenues Seen

The 1962 receipts to Oct. 1 total $482,441 for sales tax, gas tax, real estate tax, auto licenses, liquor tax and personal and intangible taxes, Willshaw said, reporting on a conference last week with Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate. At the same time in 1961, the same sources produced $575,416, he said.

But an estimated $120,000 additional is expected before the end of the year, which will produce total receipts of $602,441. That would make 1962's income from these sources $27,024 ahead of 1961, he said.

Income tax receipts through Sept. 30 total $155,034. With a balance of $14,853 carried forward from 1961, the overall income totals $169,900. The overall receipts from the income tax had been estimated at $180,853 for 1962, but it is expected the estimate will be exceeded by about $20,000, Willshaw said.

Urge Higher Increases

After the committee's report was presented, Fire Chief Charles Bryan, Police Capt. Robert Pyle and Lt. Clyde W. Boso objected that higher increases should have been provided for some of the commanding officers in the fire and police departments.

Chief Bryan said the proposal does not provide enough "spread" between the salaries of assistant chiefs and rank-and-file firemen. "Sometimes Council can't do everything it wants to do," Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. replied.

The $30 raise means a lieutenant will be earning $20 more than a patrolman, Lt. Boso said. A lieutenant's pay now is $1.33 more per day than a patrolman, he said. The boost means 67 cents more a day, or 8 cents hourly, he added.

"I feel the officer in charge, who has full responsibility when anything occurs, is worth more than that," he said. "How many of you would like to have that responsibility for 8 cents an hour? I don't feel I can continue as a lieutenant at that rate."

More For Top Aides

Capt. Pyle agreed with Chief Bryan and Lt. Boso. He said he feels the percentage of increase should be larger for the commanding officers, compared with

Talk By State Official Set At Road Dedication

Ralph J. Lehman, who will give the principal address at the dedication of the new city freeway Wednesday at 10:30 a. m., has been administrator of metropolitan expressways for the State Highway Department since 1959.

He was appointed by E. S. Preston, highway director, after serving as engineer of interstate projects since February 1957. His post primarily has to handle the design of State Route 1 from Conneaut to Cincinnati and other interstate projects.

Lehman attended Ohio Northern University for two years and received his engineering degree from the University of Detroit. He served as public lighting commissioner for the city of Detroit from 1930-33 and joined Division 2 of the State Highway Department in Toledo in 1935.

He was transferred to the bureau of location and design in the central office in Columbus in 1936, advancing from geometrics design engineer to assistant chief engineer of location and design.

Resigning from the Highway Department in 1962, he was named assistant chief engineer of the Turnpike Commission and became chief engineer in 1956.

His address will precede the cutting of the traditional ribbon by Mayor Bert H. Goodballet.

The dedication program, arranged by the Chamber of Commerce, will include the benediction to be offered by Fr. John P. Cunningham, an assistant pastor at St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

The dedication will mark the completion of the southern most phase of a 97-mile stretch of the Lake Erie - Ohio River Freeway from Ashtabula to East Liverpool.

Detailed construction plans for 63 miles of the limited access highway, costing an estimated $70,539,000, now are being drawn and highway officials expect construction contracts to be under way within the next two years on a major portion of the mileage.

A large part of the route is expected to be open to traffic within the next three years, officials said.

Engineering drawings are to be completed by next year on the 43-mile segment from Route 170 near Calcutta to State Route 82 in Trumbull County.

Plans will be ready for contract sale by 1964 on the section from Route 82 to U. S. Route 322 in Ashtabula County, they added.

Only the 19-mile stretch from Route 322 to State Rd., south of Ashtabula, remains to be awarded to a consulting engineer for plan preparation. From State Rd. north to Route 531 east of Ashtabula, the route is either complete or under construction.

The freeway is being built as a primary route, with the state and federal governments sharing

Council Rejects Wage Increase At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Council Monday night rejected in a 5-2 vote a proposed 8 per cent wage increase for the 11 municipal power plant employees.

The wage bid had been discussed for a number of months. Councilmen Wayne McCauley and James Lynch supported the increase, while Mayor Robert Harding and the finance committee opposed it, seeking further study.

Hearing Set For Man In Firing Of Shots

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—A hearing for Robert E. Draut, 22, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, has been set for Wednesday.

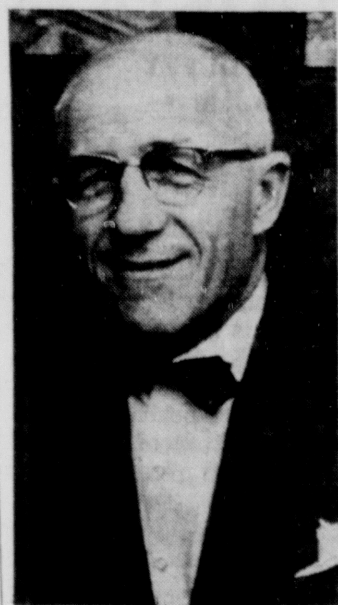

Police said Draut has admitted firing several shots at the house of a Negro whose son-in-law had just been acquitted on a charge of raping a white woman. No one was injured.

rank-and-file patrolmen and firemen.

Later, Willshaw replied to the three.

"The finance committee is not so naive as to think it could work out wage increases and not have some protests," he said. "We had to consider 160 jobs. Altogether, about 80 hours of each man's time was spent on this project. We knew we couldn't please everyone."

Willshaw said the finance committee would be willing to discuss the proposed scales with interested employees.

the cost. The possibility of interstate financing at some future date cannot be discounted, highway officials said, but the department is proceeding with the road in order to have the link between lake ports and the Ohio Valley industrial area completed as soon as possible.

Preston has advised Gov. Michael V. DiSalle that the highway department is proceeding with plans to consider Route 7 from East Liverpool at least as far south as Interstate 70 at Bridgeport as part of the lake-river freeway.

That would add 51 miles to the length at a cost exceeding $62 million for making a continuous four-lane expressway south to Bridgeport.

Fifteen miles of Route 7 between East Liverpool and Bridgeport already is a four-lane highway. More than half has been completed in the last two years at a cost of $20 million, the officials explained.

Development of the balance of the section as a four-lane highway is high on the department's priority list and, with plans now being developed, construction could be completed by late 1965 or 1966.

The freeway length from Ashtabula to Bridgeport will be 148 miles, with the estimated cost, including engineering and right of way, for four-lane development exceeding $170 million.

Right vs. wrong when you choose stocks and bonds

Maybe you're considering whether or not investing in securities would fit your situation. You might have in mind owning stock to increase your income through dividends or perhaps to give your capital a chance to grow as the years go by. Or you might be thinking of the greater stability of bonds.

Now for the big question: how to go about it?

Wrong: Jump in when the first hot tip comes along.
Right: What's the hurry? Buy securities the way you'd buy anything important—with care. When a company interests you, get all the facts you can—growth pattern, profit record, factors that might affect its future. Most of America's best known companies are among the 1,200 listed on the New York Stock Exchange. This group earns more than 60% of the net profits reported by U. S. corporations. They pay stockholders about 60% of all dividends. Roughly 90% of them have paid cash dividends in the last 12 months.

Wrong: Don't worry about risks. You're bound to win.
Right: There's no such thing as investment without risk. Many things cause stock prices to go up—and down. What's more, a company may not continue to pay dividends on stock or interest on bonds. It's just common sense to keep the risks in mind. But if your company prospers, you may too.

Wrong: Invest every cent you can lay your hands on.
Right: Provide for living expenses and those inevitable emergencies first. Then decide what might be invested. Start in a small way, if you like. One convenient system is the Monthly Investment Plan which requires as little as $40 every three months.

Wrong: Try for a quick killing.
Right: The stock market is no place for get-rich-quick schemes. Set your goals and make them practical.

Wrong: Any broker will do.
Right: Choose your broker with care. They're not all alike. Registered Representatives in Member Firms of the New York Stock Exchange have satisfied Exchange requirements for knowledge of investing. Don't expect them to know all the answers. But they can help you evaluate the facts in a sensible way.

Investing may offer you a new interest in life—a way to meet growing expenses or realize some of your family's ambitions in the years ahead. It's well worth the care of starting right.

Middletown 98, Portsmouth 14 . . .

The final score read: Middletown 98, Portsmouth 14.

We have heard it said many times that teams ranked high in state polls purposely run up lopsided scores on weaker opposition. However, this was not the case in last Friday's game at Portsmouth.

Middletown was ranked 11th in the state last week and of course was looking for a loftier position, but, according to Chris Chamis, sports editor of the Portsmouth Times, Portsmouth just could not handle the wide-open offense of the Middies.

And it wasn't the first team of Middletown that did most of the scoring. The Middie reserve units played almost three quarters of the game after the starting team had scored 32 points in the first quarter.

Actually to crowd 98 points into 48 minutes of football means the winning team must score about every time it gets its hands on the ball. That's just about what Middletown went out and did.

The Middies scored 13 of 15 times they had possession. They failed to gain a first down on one series and punted on a first down from their three-yard line on another occasion.

In case you are interested in statistics, Middletown picked up 404 yards on the ground and added 162 in the air for a net offense of 566 yards.

By the way, it was homecoming at Portsmouth and just to add insult to injury the halftime score was 56-6.

Don Jackson's Team In Surprise . . .

Going into Friday's game with Perryburg, which was rated 17th in the state at the time, Jackson's Rossford team was a decided underdog.

Rossford battled tooth and nail and wound up with a moral victory by playing its rival to a 12-12 tie. This puts quite a feather in the cap of Mr. Jackson. We are sure he is the pride of Rossford this week.

Perryburg went into Friday's game undefeated and tied Rossford on the last play of the game going a few yards for the touchdown.

Don's team shows a 4-1-1 record following a 7-1-1 season in 1961. The odd fact about his team this year is that he only has two seniors on the starting eleven.

Mostly Football . . .

SOME of the best backs in Columbiana County assembled on the Leetonia gridiron last Friday night, but it was Paul Murphy who stole the show.

An all-around athlete at Columbiana, Murphy whizzed by Leetonia defenders for four touchdowns. His running mate, Jim Ward, the Clippers amazing track star, scored one in the 40-22 victory over Leetonia.

On the other side was Leetonia's Paul Conrad, a very elusive fellow who found his way over the goal line twice. This trio could play in about any class.

BOB WALLACE, from a long line of outstanding quarterbacks which cut their football teeth at Alliance High, scored the winning touchdown on a plunge in a 14-10 victory over upstart Indiana last Saturday at Bloomington.

A NOTE of improvement shows that the East Liverpool reserve team was defeated 14-0 by the Steubenville Big Red jayvees Saturday, a long cry from a 32-0 whipping suffered in its first meeting with the Stubbers two weeks ago. Coach Jack Bair seemed satisfied with his team's showing.

The young Potters play at East Palestine next Saturday morning at 10.

Celtics Buy Lovellette From Hawks

BOSTON (AP)—Boston has bolstered its bid for a record fifth straight National Basketball Association championship by acquiring Clyde Lovellette for pivot insurance behind Bill Russell.

The Celtics closed the deal with the St. Louis Hawks late Monday night, surrendering next year's second round draft choice and an unannounced sum of money for second round draft choice and an unannounced sum of money for the 6-foot-9 shotmaker.

"He's the guy we've been looking for," chirped an exhilarated coach Red Auerbach when he learned the deal had gone through.

It had been known for some time the Celtics' most pressing problem was to secure some relief for Russell, the 6-10 defensive genius who has to play almost every minute of every tough game.

Auerbach had requested that St. Louis owner Ben Kerner hold off placing the 33-year-old one-time University of Kansas All-American on waivers until Boston owner Walter Brown could make an offer.

Lovellette, a nine year NBA veteran and one of the members of the league's exclusive 10,000-points-club, had been slow rounding into shape for the Hawks in this pre-season period due to a foot injury.

"I knew Lovellette definitely could help us, that's why we went after him," Brown said.

Two Contests Will Launch NBA Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Basketball Association begins its 17th season tonight when the defending Western Division champion Los Angeles Lakers meet the Detroit Pistons and the New York Knickerbockers tangle with the Chicago Zephyrs in Madison Square Garden.

By the end of the week, all teams in the league with the exception of the transplanted San Francisco Warriors will have seen action. The Warriors, who used to be in Philadelphia, open at home against Detroit next Tuesday.

The league has been experimenting with several rule changes during the exhibition season, but president Maurice Podoloff said none would be adopted because a poll of the teams failed to show enough favorable response.

Among the changes that were tried were increasing the foul line to 15 feet, four fouls in each half per player and the elimination of the three-point play.

World Series Reaches Final Round After Billy Pierce Subdues Yanks, 5-2

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— After 13 days, 6,000 miles of jet travel and six ball games, the San Francisco Giants and New York Yankees are all even again going into today's seventh and final World Series game.

And for the third time in the rain-delayed marathon, it will be Jack Sanford of the Giants facing Ralph Terry of the Yanks. Sanford (24-7) shut out the Yanks with three hits and beat Terry (23-12) in the second series game.

Sanford Vs. Terry In Grand Finale

24. Terry edged Sanford in the fifth game, 5-3, when rookie Tom Tresh broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run homer in the eighth inning.

The Giants have not won a series from the Yankees since 1922. In six series meetings, the Yanks hold a 4-2 edge, winning in 1923, 1936, 1937 and 1951. The Giants took the first two—in 1921 and 1922. In all, the Yanks have a 19-7 series record against all competition while the Giants are 5-9.

But records mean little to this Giant bunch, who were written off after their "June swoon." From the brink of disaster, they closed a four-game gap on the Los Angeles Dodgers in the final week of the National League season, then pulled out the pennant in the ninth inning of the third playoff game.

One down three different times in this joust with the Yankees, they bounced back three times—the third time Monday when Billy Pierce and Orlando Cepeda led them to a 5-2 victory that snapped Whitey Ford's five-game series winning streak.

Pierce, an old American League, won his first series game with a three-hitter for his 13th consecutive victory at Candlestick Park, and Cepeda awoke from an 0-for-12 hitting slump. He had three hits—a double and two singles — drove in two runs and scored one.

The defeat left Ford, top winner in World Series history with 10, sharing the record for most series defeats—five.

Cepeda's outburst got him a place in the starting lineup for today's game, although he has been riding the bench lately against right-handed pitching.

Willie McCovey, who usually replaces Cepeda at first base, will be in left field in place of Harvey Kuenn, and Tom Haller will take over for catcher Ed Bailey.

'Rest Helped Me,' Cepeda Declares

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Like bad checks, the San Francisco Giants kept bouncing back.

Five times since the final day of the regular 1962 National League schedule, Manager Alvin Dark's scrappy crew proved opponents couldn't count their money in the bank.

They pulled even with Los Angeles on Sept. 30, last day of the 1962 season, with a victory over Houston while the Dodgers lost to St. Louis. They beat Los Angeles with four runs in the ninth inning of the third playoff game.

They lost the first, third and fifth games of the World Series, but pulled even at three games each Monday as Billy Pierce pitched a three-hitter and Orlando Cepeda's bat awoke for a 5-2 victory in the rain-delayed sixth game.

"They kept bouncing back all season," declared Dark who most certainly wouldn't compare his club with a bum check. "Orlando Cepeda hit the ball harder yesterday than he has in a month and a half.

"I don't think Pierce threw as hard as he did in that first playoff game (8-0) or the World Series game in New York, but he pitched a fine game. He was putting the ball where he wanted it."

Pierce exhibited the spirit of the Giants when asked if he thought he could throw again today.

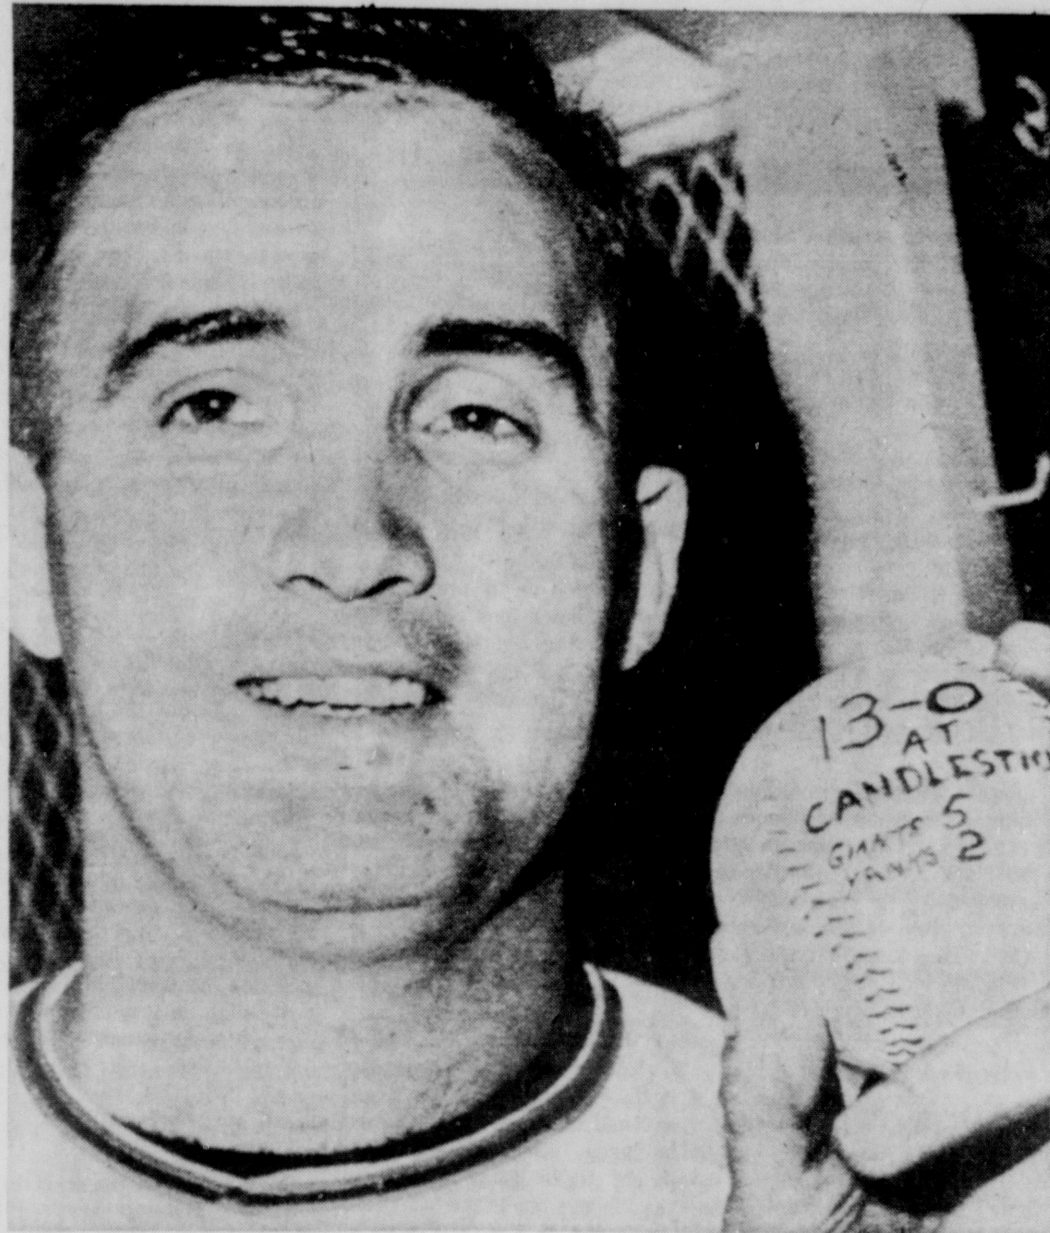

"I'd sure give it a try," he replied. "We don't want to save anything for the winter."

Cepeda, who slumped the final month of the season and hadn't hit in the Series, said, "The rest helped me a lot. I was swinging the same but I felt better. I used a 35-ounce bat. I used a 33 before."

Going to the heavier stick probably meant as much psychologically as it did in left. Orlando banged a single, double and single in his first three times at bat, drove in two runs and won today's starting assignment.

"Cepeda was just tired out," Dark said. "He'd played 260 games."

The big first baseman from Puerto Rico played winter ball in his homeland before reporting to spring training.

GIANTS PITCHER Billy Pierce, in the dressing room after Giants won, 5-2, in the sixth game of the World Series, holds up a ball lettered "13-0" to indicate his record pitching in Candlestick Park. Monday, he made it 13 wins. The Giants victory over the Yankees evened the Series at 3-3. (UPI Telephoto)

Haller always catches when Sanford pitches. The Yankees plan no lineup changes.

The weatherman promised fair weather with the temperature in the mid 70s for the game.

The winners will split $362,578.32 and the losers will divide $241,718.88. Nobody knew how many shares were voted, but, on the basis of 30 for each, a winner would get about $12,000 and a loser about $8,000.

Los Angeles, Detroit Lead In Olympic Bids

CHICAGO (AP)— Los Angeles, according to rumors, had the inside track today as the American city to bid for the 1968 summer Olympics. Detroit, which in the past has been the official U.S. bidder three times, also was said to be in the running.

The board of directors of the U.S. Olympic Committee — numbering about 40—was to certify officially today the city to make the bid.

Representatives of Los Angeles, scene of the last summer Olympics in the U.S. in 1932, San Francisco, Detroit, Philadelphia and Portland, Ore., made their presentations for the summer games before the Olympic site committee Monday. All were termed impressive.

Lake Placid, N.Y., and Salt Lake City vied for American bids for the winter games of 1968, but there appeared little chance that the United States would be selected for them since the 1960 winter Olympics were at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The two U.S. cities selected as formal bidders will be submitted to the International Olympic Committee meeting in Nairobi, Kenya, Oct. 13, 1963. International forces bidding against them for the summer games will be Mexico City, Vienna, Lausanne and Buenos Aires.

They will be in Tokyo in 1964.

Mantle, Maris Morose, Silent After Yank Loss

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, the power pair of the New York Yankees, were morose and silent Monday after their 5-2 World Series loss to Billy Pierce and the San Francisco Giants.

Maris, who lofted his first Series homer over the right field fence in the fifth inning, laconically allowed the Pierce pitch he hit was a curve ball.

Then Maris settled down for several minutes solitary silence in the trainer's room—off limits to reporters.

Mantle, 0-for-4 against Pierce and 2-for-22 in the Series, was bitterly angry with himself and his .091 hitting average.

"I don't want to say a damned word about anything," Mantle told a reporter as he yanked off his shirt.

When Maris eventually came out to his locker, he answered most questions with nods or grunts—affirmative or negative.

Texas Moves To No. 1 Spot On Grid Poll

By JACK KEEVER
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The coach of the University of Texas Longhorns, named today as the No. 1 college football team in the nation, said ratings mean very little to him.

"I'd feel slighted if we weren't in the top ten," Coach Darrell Royal said, "but being No. 1 doesn't make one iota of difference to me."

The Longhorns were No. 2 in last week's Associated Press poll and moved into the top spot after defeating traditional rival Oklahoma last Saturday 9-6.

The Longhorns replaced Alabama, the defending national champion, which defeated Houston 14-3. The Crimson Tide fell to second place. Texas finished with 458 points and 21 first-place votes, compared to 437 points for Alabama. Bear Bryant's club collected 24 first-place votes, however.

The voting by a nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters was on the usual basis of 10 points for first place, 9 for second and so on.

Following Alabama, in order, were Southern California, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Ohio State, Arkansas, Northwestern, Washington and Wisconsin.

"I'll tell you one thing, though," said Royal. "Arkansas has reason to be slighted that they aren't ranked any higher."

Undefeated Arkansas, Texas' next opponent, advanced from No. 8 to No. 7 after defeating Baylor, 28-21, in a Southwest Conference game.

Royal said the Longhorns have no hopes of stopping Arkansas' offense this weekend, but can only try to slow them down.

"They have the ability to move the ball and move in a hurry," Royal said. "They score big and it's obvious we don't."

Arkansas and Texas play Saturday night in Memorial Stadium here in a game which many feel will decide the 1962 Southwest Conference championship. Both teams are undefeated through four games. Both have some of the best offensive figures in the nation.

Actress Lana Turner Gets Mexican Divorce

JUAREZ, Mexico — Actress Lana Turner was granted a Mexican divorce Monday from her fifth husband, businessman Fred May. Judge Miguel Gomez Guerra in Juarez granted Miss Turner the divorce after a brief hearing.

Incompatibility was listed by Miss Turner as the grounds for the divorce, but both parties agreed to the action.

The actress and May were married in November 1960, and separated a few weeks ago.

Niles Continues Second

Alliance Remains No. 1; Columbiana In 18th Spot

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's top-ranked high school football teams turned on the power last week in a battle for the upper brackets in The Associated Press' weekly poll.

Only eight of the top 10 saw action. Runner-up Niles and ninth-rated Springfield South were idle.

Seven emerged victors and piled up 303 points—paced by top-rated Alliance's 78 against Cleveland East. The seven losers garnered 18 points—none of them being able to make a conversion.

Alliance, 1958 champion, continued to pace the pack, although it lost a few poll points to Niles McKinley's defending kings. The week's big surprise was a provided by free-wheeling Middletown, piloted by 1961 coach of the year Glenn (Tiger) Ellison.

Battled out of the top 10 last week by Springfield, 14-12, the Middies roared back for a 98-14 verdict over Portsmouth's lowly Trojans, scoring 13 of the 15 times they had the ball. That display, in the opinion of 46 sports editors voting in the poll, entitled the Butler County "run and shoot" outfit to sixth place in the ratings.

Sandusky was a convincing 30-6 winner over Fremont, opening game victor over Massillon, and the streaks moved from seventh to third while the Little Giants fell from third to among the also-rans.

From here and there:

Findlay, with a 2-2 record, has only nine poll points—but it is staking a claim to a share of the lead on a comparative score basis. The Findlay crew defeated Marion Harding 24-22 last week. Marion Harding was an earlier 14-8 victor over Lima Senior, and Lima Senior whipped Alliance in the season's inaugural. So, Findlay figures if it beat the team which beat the team which is on top, it has a valid case for more recognition.

Findlay's win over Marion Harding was only its fifth conquest in nine years in the Buckeye Conference—never more than one a season.

Paul Walker Jr. has thrown 16 touchdown passes for Middletown three against Portsmouth in the first quarter. The Middie reserves played the last three sessions.

Shelby, coached by Bill Wilkins, has a 6-0 record and a 185-pound halfback in Charley Wetz, who has scored seven touchdowns on runs ranging from 63 to 84 yards. His scoring runs have gone 485 yards, an average of 69-plus. Shelby is one of the few teams using the balanced single-wing attack.

How about Cincinnati Wyoming? It has won 28 straight in the Millcreek Valley League over five seasons and currently is 6-0 with a 220-0 scoring record.

Vermilion whipped previously unbeaten Lorain Clearview 30-12 for a 5-1 record, the loss being by forfeit in the opener for using an ineligible player who had moved one block over the city limits.

Columbiana made it five straight when Paul Murphy scored four times in the 40-22 win over Leetonia. Cleveland Heights is winless in five, and its five touchdowns have been scored by one youngster—fullback Ron Silvers.

The state's football capital could be moving northeast a bit from Stark County. Warren Harding, Warren St. Marys and Niles McKinley—within a five-mile radius—have won 15, lost 1 and tied 1.

Trouble with the lights held up the Newark-at-Chillicothe game for two hours. Earlier the field lights failed in the third quarter to delay another game about the same period.

Joe Yore of Hilliard, one of Franklin County's most versatile, scored four touchdowns and two conversions in the 33-16 win over Mifflin.

Harry Wilson of seventh-ranked Steubenville, who has 14 touchdowns, scored a pair and rolled up 254 yards rushing as the Big Red whipped Pittsburgh North Catholic 46-0. And big Bob Hagerty of Steubenville Central, a 220-pound sprinter and straight-A student, recovered from injuries long enough to score on jaunts of 78, 63 and 5 yards in the 26-0 win over Lima Central.

Perrysburg (5-0-1) and Port Clinton (6-0) clash Friday with the Northern Lakes League title hanging in the balance. Quarterbacking the Perrysburg club is Tony Snyder, son of Bob Snyder, current coach of the Toledo Tornadoes of the United Football League. Bob formerly played with the Chicago Bears and coached Toledo University.

The Northern Lakes loop has produced some good ones—including Pat Dommely, Navy's fullback from Maumee; John Wilber of Port Clinton, now with Miami U. of Florida; and Denny Egner of Port Clinton, Capital's quarterback.

Once-powerful Mansfield beat Lorain 20-8, its first win in seven starts. Garold Dade of Circleville gained 126 yards in 12 tries as the Roundtown boys beat Wilmington 18-0, giving him 635 yards for 35 carries.

Trainer William Hal Bishop saddled 111 winners in thoroughbred racing the first seven months of 1962.

Billy Is The Toast Of Frisco

Pierce Lost Many Close Ones To Yankees In AL

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Throughout a long and distinguished major league career, Billy Pierce has been known as "the fellow who loses 2-1 to the Yankees."

The stylish left-hander, now a baseball ancient at 35, pitched many great games against the New Yorkers, and more often than not had a great game pitched against him.

Today, Pierce is being toasted as the fellow who evened the World Series at three games each, with a three-hitter for a 5-2 victory for the San Francisco Giants Monday.

It was his first World Series victory. He lost the third game to the Yankees in New York, 3-2, his accustomed margin.

"It was a great thrill," said Pierce, "but I think my shutout in the playoff against the Dodgers was even a bigger thrill."

"After all, this game didn't decide anything."

Reminded that if the Giants had lost Monday's game, it would have ended the World Series in favor of the Yankees, Pierce said, "Gosh, I never thought of that."

Pierce sat on a little wooden stool in the Giant dressing room and bantered with reporters.

"No, I don't think I surprised the Yankees," he grinned. "They have seen me for more than 10 years, and being in this league for one year doesn't make any difference."

Pierce came to the majors with the Detroit Tigers, and then labored 13 years with the Chicago

White Sox. He compiled a 25-38 career mark against the Yankees in that span.

Pierce was traded into the National League to the Giants last winter.

Pierce has found a happy berth in Candlestick Park, the home of the Giants.

He has never lost a game in its friendly confines. The playoff victory over the Dodgers was his 12th without a loss.

"It's usually cool here, and I pitch better in cool weather, I guess," Pierce said, in an attempt to explain his success.

GOP Candidate Urges Rotation Of Chief Justice

CLEVELAND —The Republican candidate for chief justice of the Ohio Supreme Court has proposed that the position of chief justice be rotated among members of the court and that a seventh justice be elected.

The suggestion came from Judge Kingsley A. Taft, a member of the court, in a speech he made Monday to the student body of Western Reserve University Law School.

"I believe it would be much sounder to elect a seventh judge instead of electing a chief justice, as such, and then rotate the position of chief justice for two or three-year terms among the two or three judges under 70 who have served the longest on the court," said Judge Taft.

"This method of selecting a chief justice could be adopted by the legislature at any time," he said. "It would require no changes in the Constitution."

"The present Ohio method of electing a chief justice is used in very few other states. Its principal fault is that it tends to discourage the selection of anyone as chief justice who has had any experience on the court. This springs from the unpleasantness necessarily involved in someone with experience on the court opposing an incumbent chief justice."

Judge Taft is opposing incumbent Chief Justice Carl V. Weygant in next month's election.

Workers Level River Rd. Paving

All of the streets for which property owners petitioned have been completed and no further work will be undertaken until next year.

No final figures have been compiled yet on the square yards of the asphaltic material applied in the program, in which property owners and the city shared the cost.

How To Get Through An Hour Of TV Drama

It's easy to plot the graph of a good television play. Essentially it's the sales curve of a successful business enterprise, with a jump in profits at the three-quarter mark and an all-out boom at the end.

But it's a bit harder to sustain that upward curve once the paper is in a writer's battered typewriter and the first words ("HE: Howdy ma'am. SHE: H'lo, big feller.") have been written.

THE TREND in television drama toward the 60-minute half-hour is putting a slack in the curve and creating havoc among our writers.

Trim, quick-moving shows that used to tell their tightly cosseted yarns in 30 minutes (Alfred Hitchcock Presents, "Gunsmoke") now have a full hour to slop around in. For the first time, a comedy series ("Fair Exchange") has gone to an hour, and we're being treated to our first 90-minute Western ("The Virginian").

Soon "The Defenders" will be joining those programs which occasionally try for an endurance record of 120 minutes (the two-parters). And before we know it we're likely to have Paladin riding into town at our dinner hour and going off into the sage at midnight, leaving a plot curve behind him as flat as the Painted Desert.

WRITERS assigned the duty of bringing in a half-hour plot in 60, 90 or 120 minutes have numerous devices at their disposal. "Ben Casey," as a case in point, solved its time problem the other night with a drama that demonstrated the complexities of life in a hospital during a power breakdown.

The writer had as many incidents to play with — a young lady enduring labor pains in a trapped elevator, a dying patient in need of a resuscitator, a mental case on the loose, etc., etc. — as disaster.

Dr. Casey moved through these crises in characteristic ill temper, frazzling the nerves of the resident nurses and doctors and inciting them almost to riot. One more night like that with Casey in charge and Sawbones Memorial will lose its liquor license.

THE OPENING episode of "Stoney Burke" was a melange of semi-plots having to do with (a) a guest bronc buster who wired his boot to his saddle and took his lumps for the indiscretion, (b) the title character's disastrous encounter with a peevish bronc, his subsequent brave recovery and his triumphant comeback in the rodeo and (c) his romance with the proprietress of a horse ranch.

Thus went cowboy Burke's cluttered debut. He was back a week later in something a little more clean cut and (as a result) more difficult to sustain.

The writer kept the thing going, though, with an always reliable device: brutality. The dead smack of knuckles upon jaws thudded through the long 60 minutes like the hoofbeats of the Brahmas.

"SAM BENEDICT" answered the problem the other night through the device of — again — the double story. While Sam had the impossible chore of proving a brilliant murderer insane — the lady, he found, grabbed for blunt instruments whenever the name Oliver Wendell Holmes came up — his assistant was out trying to get a square deal for a Chinese restaurateur.

I kept expecting the Moo Goo Gai Pan dispenser to turn out to be Mr. Justice Holmes, but the two plots never did come together.

Meanwhile, "Show of the Week" went on its old-fashioned way of providing the most neatly fashioned hours of the season.

"The Outpost" was only a so-so allegory; but "The Interrogator" was a trim melodrama; and then, a week ago, "Big Deal in Laredo" was a handsomely turned-out satire on the Western poker game theme.

Walter Matthau, Teresa Wright, and especially John McGiver played their one crooked hand in excellent fashion. "Show of the Week," if it doesn't watch out, will give the 60-minute series a good name.

Court Acquits Woman In Charge Of Fighting

A city woman was acquitted and a former Wellsville woman was handed a suspended fine and costs following hearings Monday in Municipal Court on fighting charges.

Ruth Green, 417 Sugar St., was found not guilty by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after hearing testimony from her and Patrolman Jerry Adkins, who filed the charge.

Mrs. Kay Carpenter of Youngstown, an ex-Wellsville resident, was fined $10 and costs on her plea of guilty to the same charge but Judge Chertoff suspended both.

The two women were arrested at 12:09 a. m. today on Sugar St. by Patrolman Adkins after he answered a domestic disturbance call. The officer said the fight started after he arrived but was unable to tell the court which woman started it.

Bringing Up A Family

Family Bible Reading Enjoyable

This is Bible Week. Although a very few parents don't want their children to read the Bible, most parents do. Most parents also would like to have their children hear the Bible read at school. But because some other parents object, the courts are inclined to rule that Bible reading at school is unconstitutional. But any parent who wants his children to read the Bible at home or hear it read there has complete freedom to do so. Today's column is addressed to parents who consider the Bible a precious book for their children to read and hear read.

AS YOU KNOW, different faiths prefer different translations of the Bible. Parents will do well to expose their children to the type of Bible preferred by their own faith or recommended by their minister, priest or rabbi.

Regardless of the translation preferred, it is a great book of literature and full of accounts of upward striving. It is a book of moral and spiritual concern, a kind of moral and religious textbook for those of the leading faiths in our nation.

It is easy to read and inexpensive to buy. Much great literature assumes familiarity with the Bible and such familiarity helps make literature more meaningful.

Church schools of the leading faiths in our country aim to acquaint their students with the Bible. But its uses in the home have the greatest possibilities.

PARENTS WHO have a Bible of their choice in the home wisely read it often to their children when they are very young and continue it as they grow older. Often it is read to one another in the family.

Whatever translation of the Bible you prefer, you will find it is in very simple, direct English. Any person reading or hearing parts of it over and over gains facility and forcefulness in speech and writing.

Any child, youth or adult wishing to become a better reader and to speak and write with greater ease could perhaps do nothing better than to read aloud from those portions of the Bible which he likes best alone or together with the family.

Now and then a family says together some whole chapters from the Bible as a kind of grace at the family meal — a highly commendable practice.

My bulletins, "The Young Child and Religion," "Graces and Prayers for Young Children" and "Why Read to Baby and Young Child," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Fire Department Pushes Ahead In Contest Judging

Judging is continuing in various contests held by the Wellsville fire department in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week, which ended Saturday.

Mike Albanese, 1616 Buckeye Ave., was the winner Friday in a "tie-riffic" contest, while Ilene Milligan, 521 Broadway, was the winner Saturday. They guessed the fire marshal of the day, one of eight men wearing bright red neckties.

The deadline is today for anyone who wants to attempt to guess who all the marshals were. The names should be submitted to the department.

Anyone guessing them all will receive a prize. The daily winners also receive a prize.

The judging is expected to be completed by Wednesday in a poster contest in the schools. The winners will receive trophies provided by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The school which is the winner in a junior fire marshal contest also will be announced.

Assistant Chief Robert Lloyd was in charge of the tie contest while he and Fireman Frank Fusco were in charge of the school programs.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I am a girl 12 years old. My parents have a fault that bothers me something terrible. They talk with food in their mouths at the dinner table. They also chew with their mouths wide open which is about the crudest thing a person can do.

I would like to know how to correct them. Dining at home is becoming a very unpleasant experience for me. — WELL-MANNERED GIRL.

Dear Girl: How nice that you know how to keep YOUR mouth closed at the table. Please take my advice and keep it closed away from the table, too.

Far more serious than talking with food in your mouth is talking out of turn. Your parents perhaps did not have an opportunity to learn some of the fine points of etiquette. They must have some admirable qualities to have reared such an elegant young lady as you, so why don't your emphasize their good points and overlook the rest?

Worried Parents

Dear Ann: We are worried parents. Our daughter is a good-looking young woman of 20, she has a pleasant personality and did fairly well in school.

Pat excelled in athletics and at one time had her heart set on teaching physical education but she quit college after two years to take a traveling job with a sporting goods firm.

Now Pat has the crazy idea she wants to join the Armed Forces. We don't know any girls in the service but we've always had the notion they come from low-class families and that their morals leave much to be desired.

Since we have no authentic information, we are writing to you for guidance. What are your ideas of women in the service?—T. and R.F.

Dear T. and R.F.: In the absence of authentic information, it's unfortunate that some people believe the worst. Regardless of the career a girl may choose, she maintains the same moral standards she learned at home.

To qualify for the services a young woman must meet rigid physical, mental and moral requirements. Careful screening and close supervision insures first-rate conduct. Girls who fail to measure up are handed their walking papers.

The women's services offer pleasant living quarters, well-balanced meals, medical and dental care, smart uniforms, economic security and excellent opportunities for advancement.

I recommend the Armed Forces for the young woman who wants to see some new faces, get out of a rut, and at the same time serve her country. Information can be obtained without obligation by checking your phone directory under U.S. Government for the nearest Army, Navy, Air Force or Marine recruiting station.

Indulged Youth

Dear Ann: The 17-year-old son of our dear friends was arrested last week for stealing a car. We were shocked beyond words and so was everyone else in our social circle.

The family is prominent and extremely well-to-do. The boy had access to his mother's car as well as his dad's. All he had to do was ask. Why in the world would a boy do a thing like this? He is not stupid.

His parents are heartbroken and nobody can figure out what got into the lad. Can you explain it? —QUESTION MARK.

Dear Question Mark: Some kids steal cars (and other things) because they don't have anything else to do. "Kicks," they call it.

A boy who would rather steal a car than ask to borrow one is undoubtedly looking for excitement.

When children of prominent families break the law, usually there is a punitive motive involved. They wish to humiliate and hurt their parents, and this is a sure way.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Huge Welcome Awaits Algerian Leader In Cuba

HAVANA (AP)—The Castro regime called out thousands of Cubans to give a massive welcome today to Premier Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria.

The 45-year-old Algerian leader flies here from Washington, where he reviewed world problems, including Cuba, with President Kennedy.

A spokesman for Ben Bella denied reports that the Algerian leader will try to mediate between the United States and Cuba during his Havana visit.

Cuban students, workers and others were told to line the route between Havana's airport and the capital. The Communist newspaper Hoy published detailed instructions to citizens of various quarters of greater Havana on where to take positions along the highway.

Billboards greeting Ben Bella in Spanish and Arabic were erected along the four-lane highway. They carried large likenesses of Ben Bella and Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, plus the flags of the two nations.

Ben Bella is expected to spend at least 48 hours on the island nation and to confer with Castro.

President Kennedy toasted Ben Bella at a White House luncheon Monday as a man "who has borne heavy burdens and bears them now with distinction."

In reply, Ben Bella paid tribute to "political courage which has more meaning than physical courage, because it is easier sometimes to display physical courage than the political kind." This was a reference to Kennedy's support, while a U.S. senator, of Algerian independence.

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK OCTOBER 14-20

Your family's silent partner

Lying there on the doorstep, it can't speak. Or Move. Or Hear. But open it in your hands and it becomes a living, powerful partner in daily living. In the decisions you make, the opinions you form.

It takes you to the highest chambers of government. It takes you to the bloodiest streets of warring countries. It takes you to the heart of history in the making. In short, it tells you what in the world is happening and why.

But people depend on it for needs beyond the need to know. It's where families turn when something's to be bought or sold. It's where hints on health, cooking, religion, amusements, dressmaking, etiquette, marriage are found. It's where charities first turn for help, and a place where a letter to the editor is published. It's where campaigns are fought and lost dogs are found. It's where criminals are exposed and newlyweds applauded. Where birth and death meet on the same page.

National Newspaper Week, Oct. 14-20

It's your newspaper, silent partner of the family, yet one that says so much, does so much for so many people — every day without fail.

Concerning the door-to-door solicitation, Richard Fusco of Aliquippa, acting executive director of the United Funds of Beaver County, said it is the usual custom for volunteers to stop at all homes, even at those displaying the United Fund sticker, in order to thank the family for its pledge and to check if anyone missed an opportunity to give. He said people appreciate being thanked.

2 Men Fined In Tampering

Two area men accused of tampering with a parked car at a Newell pottery Friday were given stiff fines at hearings Monday night before two Hancock County squires.

Arrested initially by Hancock County sheriff's deputies, Richard Lynn Reed, 19, of Industry and Russell Edwin Reynolds, 20, of Negley R. D. 1 were fined a total of $150 and costs each and placed on probation.

Deputies said the pair was nabbed late Friday night while tampering with a car parked at the lot of Plant 4 of the Homer Laughlin China Co.

They had jacked up the car of Harold R. Cline, who then filed a charge of tampering, deputies said.

The two were then lodged in jail to await a hearing last night before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland. Squire Herron fined each $100 and costs and placed them on six-month probation.

Following the hearing, the pair was again arrested by Grant District Constable J. Carl Durham and charged with trespassing on private property of the pottery firm.

Reed and Reynolds were then taken to Newell for another hearing before Squire Harry Lytton and fined $50 and costs each—the maximum penalty—or 10 days in county jail.

The defendants were re-committed to County Jail in New Cumberland in default of fines, deputies said.

Squire Lytton also fined William Locke of East Liverpool $10 and costs on a charge of failure to have his car under control. He was cited by deputies on Route 66.

Court Begins Traffic Case

A lengthy hearing was under way this morning before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff for Charles A. Trautman of Substation, arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated after his auto hit a parked car on St. Clair Ave. Oct. 4.

Six witnesses were expected to testify at the hearing, including the two arrested officers, Patrolmen Kent Garvey and Kenneth H. Mooney. Atty. George A. Aronson represents the defendant and Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper is prosecuting.

Trautman previously pleaded not guilty. His hearing today was a resumption of a trial that began Oct. 9.

As the case began today, Atty. Aronson renewed a motion to dismiss the affidavit, alleging it was improper because it was signed by both officers. The judge overruled the motion.

As the trial began, Patrolman Garvey was first to take the stand. He testified that Trautman was taken into custody after his auto hit a parked car in front of 1040 St. Clair Ave.

When the patrolmen arrived, they found Trautman seated on the curb, his clothing disarranged, he said. Queried by the solicitor about Trautman's physical condition, the officer said:

"He tried to stand up, but couldn't make it and fell back down."

Patrolman Garvey said the two cars involved in the mishap were parked at the curb when he and Officer Mooney arrived. He said there was damage to the right front of Trautman's car and the rear of the other auto.

City Firemen Answer 3 Calls On Weekend

Three minor alarms were answered over the weekend by city firemen.

The department was called to the site of the old Gaston home on St. Clair Ave. at 1:50 p. m. Saturday when boys playing with matches set fire to an old mattress. Firemen used a booster line to quell the blaze.

They were called to the City Market building on St. Clair Ave., almost next door to Central Station, at 9:30 p. m. and used an extinguisher to put out a fire in an electric motor, which apparently shorted out.

A rubbish fire was quelled at 12:16 p. m. Sunday on Harvey Ave.

Reducing Diet Separates Men From Boys

When you recognize under what circumstances you tend to "eat like crazy," you are in a better position to cope with your problem. Facing up to the problem instead of trying to evade the issue, can be unexpectedly energizing. A plucky teenager accepted the challenge and is now only 5 pounds from his ideal weight.

A few years back, at age 16, this unhappy lad weighed 180 pounds for 5 feet 5" and wrote that his greatest joy after school was to tackle a stack of books and a stack of food, piled even higher.

Since he was too fat to be good at sports, he was left out. Being lonely he ate more.

His married sister, disgusted with his appearance, urged him to diet. He went home vowing, "No, never, no diets for me!"

IN A SINCERE effort to help her young brother, the sister had him over for supper each night, and prepared the right kind of food. Her interest was the turning point.

From then on, no concoction was as exciting as seeing the scale pointer edging down. He discovered that the trick of successful dieting was to concentrate on something other than food. He whipped into calisthenics, and walked everywhere.

He widened his interests and before long made new friends. He reduced to 150 pounds and felt alive and happy.

All this happened three years ago, and during that time he kept his weight on an even keel of 150 pounds. Then an emotional upheaval in his life threw him back into the old habit pattern of turning to food for comfort.

"It wasn't long before my weight skyrocketed — 20 fat pounds!" he wrote.

But this time, being more mature, the young man faced the fact that excess food was compounding the problem. Aware that he was using food to bolster his sagging confidence, he mustered the inner strength to take action. "Walk on your own two feet!" was his battle cry. The good news — he is now just 5 pounds from his ideal weight and full of confidence.

What helped him the most? "I would like to thank you for the idea of 'mental imagery' I see myself in athletic activities of all sorts. Mental gymnastics have been a spur diet-wise and have literally propelled me into exercising! Not only have I found this a great aid in battling the bulge, but the type of mental imagery a la IJK is character-building as well."

"THANK YOU so much, and my thanks too to the many dieters whose stories have given me a lift."

It takes a special brand of courage to face a problem and fight — instead of turning away. More-over it requires staying-power to keep your eyes on the goal. It's this kind of courage that makes champions.

Send a stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for "Choose To Lose Diet." Address your request, to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Romney Vs. Swainson

Michigan Election Seen Tossup By Observers

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan Republicans, with former auto industrialist George Romney as their candidate, have high hopes of capturing the governor's office from the Democrats Nov. 6 for the first time in 14 years.

Democratic leaders are pushing no panic buttons. They feel confident that Gov. John B. Swainson, a legless veteran of World War II with powerful AFL-CIO backing, will be on top when the votes are counted.

Most neutral observers call it a toss-up.

The campaign has developed into one of Michigan's hottest political battles. It involves such issues as leadership, tax reform, and the political activities of unions.

Democrats say the 55-year-old Romney is seeking the governor's job merely as a stepping-stone to the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.

The former American Motors president denies he has his eye on the White House, but Republican leaders say they are proud to have Romney considered throughout the nation as an attractive candidate.

In his efforts to maintain the Democratic grip on the executive office, Swainson has had support from some powerful friends. President Kennedy already has made one swing through the state and will return once more before election day.

Other high-ranking Democrats plugging for the reelection of the 37-year-old governor and Democratic congressmen include Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, former President Harry S. Truman and assorted Cabinet members. Also helping out is the man Swainson succeeded, G. Mennen Williams, now Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs.

Romney, who is getting little outside help, describes the Michigan visits of Democratic big guns as a "federal rescue mission" which proves that Swainson "needs coattails to ride on."

Activities of the ultra-conservative John Birch Society in one Detroit-area district have been seized upon by Democrats as an indication that Romney cannot control his own party.

The Republican nominee delivered a scathing denunciation of extremist groups at the GOP state convention, drew a standing ovation and says he considers the matter closed.

In his speech, Romney called for a state law that would permit political parties to oust any leaders whose real allegiance was to an "anti-American organization."

Both candidates have made a strong pitch for the Negro vote, but Romney appears to be handicapped by the fact that he holds a position in the Mormon Church equivalent to a bishop. Democrats contend that the church will not allow a Negro to hold a high office, and therefore regards Negroes as second-class citizens. Romney denies he holds any such views.

Romney also has launched a vigorous attack on some labor leaders, contending they have been dictatorial in refusing to permit him to speak to union members so that they can hear both sides and make up their own minds whom to support.

State chairmen of both parties agreed in a debate that most voters probably have already made up their minds which candidate they favor.

The winner may be decided on which party manages to convince its supporters they should bother to vote.

Shorthand Teacher's Car Won't Start Now

CLEVELAND (AP) — Because her car's battery went dead twice, Mrs. Eileen Crouse, 41, a shorthand teacher at Glenville High School, thought she had better make sure it was charged up for the night.

She placed a brick on the gas pedal to make the motor run fast Monday night and left the car parked beside her house.

Thirty minutes later, Mrs. Crouse went out to find the automobile in flames. Firemen said the motor apparently overheated and set fire to a pile of leaves under it. The flames scorched the side of the house and severed a telephone line.

And her car won't start for sure—it was a total loss, firemen said.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear daughter, Florence Evelyn Elliott, who passed away 2 years ago today, Oct. 16, 1960. Today recalls sad memories of our dear one gone to rest—and the ones who think of her today are the ones who loved her best. The flowers we placed upon her grave, may wither and decay, but the love for her who lies beneath will never fade away. Relentless death among us comes and bitter grief imparts. It took our loved one from our home. But never our hearts. Sadly missed by her mother, father, husband, the three brothers, Dale, Stanley, Oliver Tice.

People In News

By The Associated Press
Joseph P. Kennedy, the President's father, is at the White House for a week's visit. The former ambassador to Britain, who is recovering from the effects of a stroke, went to Washington from the family home at Hyannis Port, Mass.
The elder Kennedy probably will visit New York City a week from now and then fly to his winter home at Palm Beach, Fla., a spokesman said at the United Nations. No date has been set.
Mrs. Katharine Dexter McCormick, Boston civic leader and philanthropist, has given the State Department a half-million-dollar Swiss chateau so that U.S. diploats will have a better meeting place when they go to Geneva, the State Department announced in Washington.

The historic chateau is perhaps the largest private donation ever received from an individual by the department, the announcement said.
Mrs. McCormick, widow of Stanley McCormick of Chicago, is a friend of United Nations Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson. Stevenson had suggested the gift of the chateau, about 12 miles from Geneva, because of difficulties encountered by U.S. diplomats in obtaining quarters in Geneva.
The word "wedding" is derived from the word which originally meant money, houses, cattle, and anything that was used to purchase a wife. From "wed," the idea of pledging or wedding the bride was evolved. The derivation of this word indicates woman's position or "bartering power" in early-day marital arrangements.

Junior Editors Quiz on OLD SAYINGS

ANSWER: The badger is a strong, tough, animal of the weasel tribe. It used to be considered sport to set a pack of dogs on a captured badger. Bears were sometimes treated in the same way, and this was called "bear baiting." Bears and badgers are both fierce fighters when cornered, and dogs were apt to be severely injured when "badgering" — as the sport came to be called — or bear baiting. But the contest was decidedly cruel and unfair, and badgering is now prohibited by law. However, if badgers no longer get badgered, there are a good many humans who do, for the expression has come to mean any kind of mean or annoying action, whether against an animal or a man. Our artist has suggested that a human "badger" is likely to take just so much. Then watch out for him.

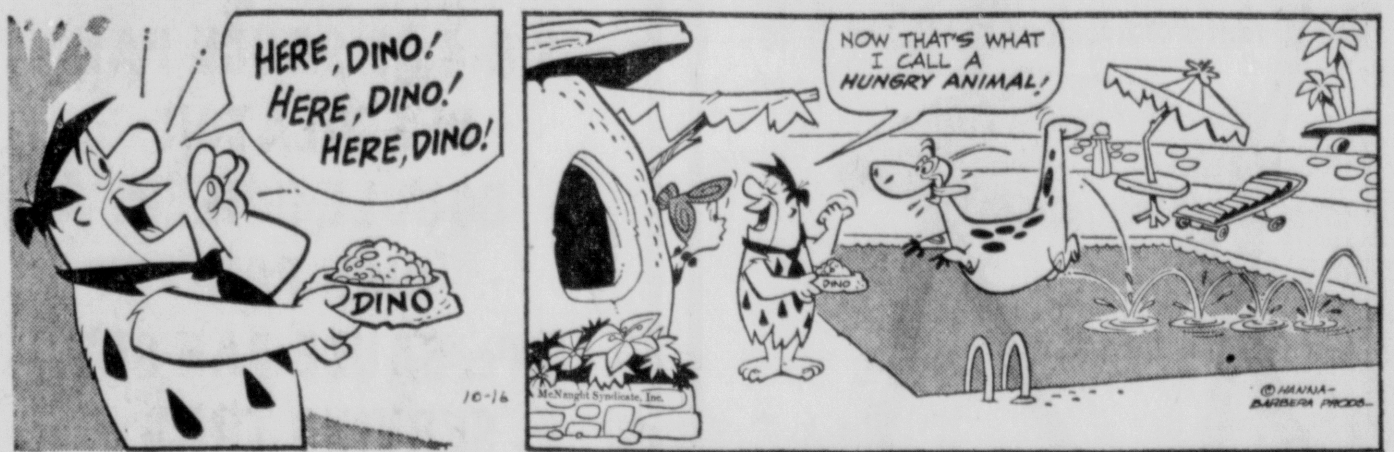

FOR YOU TO DO: The very best way to have a circle of good friends and hold them is to get a reputation for having a sense of fair play.

Elaine Stoler of Brookline, Mass., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Tuesday, Oct. 16, the 289th day of 1962. There are 76 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history: On this day in 1869, the Cardiff Giant — a crude gypsum statue of a man exhibited as a petrified human, was discovered on the farm of William Newall near Cardiff, N.Y.

On this date: In 1793, the French Queen, Marie Antoinette, was executed. In 1859, John Brown's raid began at Harper's Ferry. In 1928, Marvin Pipkin was awarded a patent for electric light bulbs frosted on the inside. In 1953, an explosion and fires aboard the aircraft carrier Leyte in a South Boston drydock killed 36 persons and injured 40. In 1959, U.S. soldier-statesman Gen. George Marshall died at the age of 78.

Today's birthdays: Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion is 76.
Thought for today: Most people judge men only by their success or their good fortune—La Rochefoucauld.
There are more than 700,000 rural boys who are Boy Scouts.
